Mrs. Allen tells us that she would never have tinned milk in the house until she at a salad made with Pacific Milk. Her friend told her the only secret she had for salad dressing was Pacific Milk.

Mrs. A. tried it and found she, too, could make better salads.

Now she uses it in all her cooking.

DISCHARGE OF SOLDIERS IS NOT DISCUSSED

Alderman Casey Opposes Interfering in Matter Which Involves Liberty of Returned Men.

A copy of a resolution passed by the Calgary City Council dealing with the duty of the Federal Government toward the returned soldier was read at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Council last night and laid on the table for further consideration. It read:

"Whereas, in the opinion of this Council the responsibility for the welfare of the returned soldier rests with the people of Canada as they are represented through the Federal Government, and whereas, the Dominion Government is the only body having the power to equally distribute this responsibility,

"And whereas, it is their duty to take care of our returned men; therefore be it resolved that a regulated system of discharge be inaugurated whereby those wishing discharge can receive it and an adequate living will be provided for others until suitable means can be provided whereby these men will be brought back into civil life, and a copy resolution be forwarded to all city councils in the Dominion for their endorsement.

"And further that this be sent to the Prime Minister."

Alderman Casey said he did not think it was the duty of the City Councils to sit in judgment on the Government and advise how the soldiers should be treated. Men who had served since the commencement of the war now wanted to be free from the army and back in civil life. To advise against these men getting their freedom was not for the Council, but a matter between the returned soldiers' associations and the Government to work out between themselves.

"TREASURE OF THE SEA" HAS EXCITING SCENES

Edith Story Commands Gunmen and Rescues Treasure From Ancient Wreck.

"Treasure of the Sea" to be seen at the Empress Theatre this evening is a play full of romance and great adventure. It is full of excitement from beginning to end, and in it Edith Story, the favorite star, has the unusual distinction of being the only woman in the cast.

In the role of a girl who knows no fear, she has a number of gunmen at her call, who put in some strenuous work in salvaging an old treasure ship, wrecked in the days of '49, with a cargo of bullion. How the heroine and the hero of "Treasure of the Sea" battle for the gold and the question as to who wins the treasure is revealed in scenes which make this picture an exceptionally fine entertainment.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS WELL ILLUSTRATED

Delightful Film Being Shown at Westholme Dealing With the Teaching of the Tango.

That music hath charms even for a committee on morals, bent on saving its townspeople from tangoing themselves to perdition, is comically brought out in Madge Kennedy's latest picture, "A Perfect Lady," which was much enjoyed at the Westholme last night and is to be repeated this evening.

Madge Kennedy is Lucile Le Jambon, prima donna and premier danseuse of the Merry Models Burlesquers, whose opening performance in Sycamore the constable has stopped at the command of Deacon John Griswold and other members of the town's purity league. Resolved to stay in Sycamore, Lucille quits her stage career and opens an ice cream cabaret, where she teaches the tango and other modern steps.

The story cannot be told. It must be seen to be appreciated.

The first meeting of the members of the Prince Rupert Symphony Orchestra took place last evening, and the number of instrumental musicians present was distinctly encouraging. There were fifteen performers at this first practice, and judging by the ability and enthusiasm displayed the Symphony Orchestra should be eminently successful.

This privilege is also made retroactive.

TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT

Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is limited to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after that date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.
