Mrs. A. tried it and found she, too, could make better salads.
Now she uses it in all her cooking.

TEN-REEL SHOW AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Charles Ray Starring in "The Clodhopper" Makes Great Hit—Good Comedies and Gazette.

With Charles Ray in the photoplay "The Clodhopper," a Mutt and Jeff cartoon, a Harold Lloyd Comedy, a Pathe Gazette, and the ninth episode of the serial "The Mystery of the Double Cross" the program presented at the Empress Theatre this evening is distinctly one of infinite variety. There are ten reels in all which certainly will give a good evening's entertainment. In "The Clodhopper" there is a story of a country boy, awkward and diffident, and strange to the ways of life outside the narrow circle of his bringing up, who in a different environment fights his way to success. Charles Ray in this play is surpassingly good. Mutt and Jeff are always well received, and the Harold Lloyd comedy is well up to the standard. The program being completed by the Pathe Gazette and the "Mystery tainment for everyone, no matter tain ment for everyone, no matter how different their tastes.

HERRING INDUSTRY TO BE ENCOURAGED

An appropriation of $25,000 for the use of the Alaska fisheries bureau to be used in promoting and encouraging the Alaska herring industry has been made by the U. S. Congress.

Through a system of government inspection and supervision and in demonstrating the Scotch method of curing herring and packing this fish so as to comply with the uniform commercial standing it is hoped to make this one of the most important industries of Alaska.

Inspections are to be made at the plant where the fish are packed, as well as at the port of delivery.

REPUTATION COUNTS

with a remedy, as with everything. Zam-Buk enjoys an enviable reputation amongst remedies. Why? Because it justifies the claims made for it. Not only does Zam-Buk cure skin troubles and injuries quickly and permanently, but the quickness with which it ends pain and irritation makes it the most popular remedy wherever it is used.

Then, too, Zam-Buk is the best preventive of blood-poisoning. Applied to an injury as soon as sustained, it destroys all germs and prevents festering. Zam-Buk is best for eczema, piles, rashes, boils, pimples, ulcers, burns, cuts and scalds. All dealers, 50c. box.

"HEART OF A LION" PROVES FINE FILM

Dramatized Version of Ralph Connor's Famous Novel to Be Seen Tonight.

"The Heart of a Lion," the American name for the film version of Ralph Connor's famous novel "The Doctor," was well attended last night at the Westholme and will be seen there again tonight. The story is one of Connor's best and deals with life in the mining towns and camps of the west.

Seldom has there been a story told here in picture that proved so full of real interest as this one. William Farnum appears as the hero and he is simply splendid. The scene is laid in western Canada and it exhales all the flavor of the real west which many people know and appreciate.

Ralph Connor, the author, is one of the most successful of Canadian fiction writers and for that reason alone the picture should be seen.

The fishing boat Pioneer under Capt. Angersness while on her way up from Seattle last Monday night met with a mishap by striking a rock in the Granville Channel. She has entered the Prince Rupert drydock for repairs.
