REV. FATHER M'GRATH TO SEE HIS BROTHER CONSECRATED BISHOP

Goes to Seattle Where Ceremony Will Take Place at St. James Cathedral.

Rev. Father McGrath left yesterday for Seattle by the S. S: Princess Mary to attend the consecration of his brother, Right Rev. Joseph McGrath, formerly pastor of St. Patrick's church, to the Bishopric of Baker City, Ore. The ceremony will take place in St. James' Cathedral, Seattle, the? consecrating prelates being Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Dea of Seattie, and preach for the occasion.

Speaking of the appointment of Father McGrath, the Seattle P. I. says:

years of successful church work Rev. Joseph F. McGrath received unofficial notice yesterday that he had been appointed by Pope Benedict bishop of the diocese of Eastern Oregon, with the bishopric see at Baker City. Father McGrath is priest of the St. Patrick's parish, of which he has been the head for twelve years. His appointment to the diocese of 55,000 square miles in a rapidly developing district is a recognition by the church authorities of his unusual capacity for executive and financial work.

"The notification came as a complete surprise to Father Mc-Grath and not an inkling as to | the probability of such an appointment had previously been able to the order of the Honourable the given him.

"TARZAN OF THE APES" IS A WONDERFUL STORY

Pictures of Wild Jungle Life Shown at Westholme Tonight Are Intensely Realistic.

"Tarzan of the Apes" is bully dventure. Wild beasts roam through the scenes; a kindly elephant takes the wild man upon his back; in short, mix Stevenson's "Treasure Island" with Captain Baker's African stories and the happy combination is struck. The joy of the film lies in its kindly wild life rather than its civilized brutality. And in putting Burrough's story into the film the shown good sense of showmanship. "Tarzan" is better than cocted for the screen. Natural beauties, imagination and clean, free spirit make the film a delight.

Tarzan, as readers of the story will remember, is the son of Lord Greystoke, who went to Africa on a secret mission for the British Government. Africa in 1897 was torn by European ravishers, the atrocities in the Belgian Congo, Jameson's raid on the Boers; slave trading, with its concomit- anuary, A. D. 1919, as follows: ant brutalities by the Arabs.

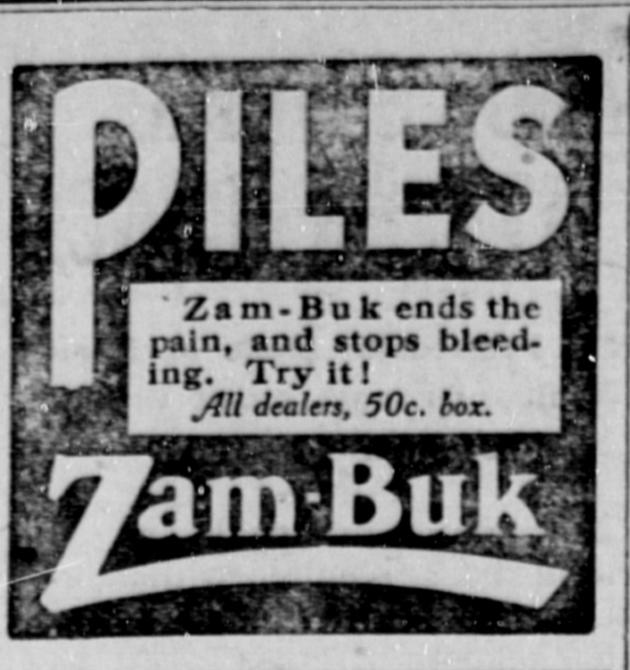

brutal officers in fair fight and he expiration of one month from the date then maroon Lord Greystoke and his wife. A boy is born in the jungle; the mother dies and the within which the heirs or devisees of a baby is carried off by a mother ape, who has just lost her young. The film traces the growth of the boy-half ape, half human-till his twentieth year.
