LAND WANTED FOR SOLDIERS

Soldier Settlement Board Advertising for Suitable Locations For Returned Men.

Victoria, March 13.—The plans of the Dominion Government for the settlement of soldiers on land include the purchase of land by soldiers, with the Government's financial assistance and supervision, wherever the soldier desires to locate on approved land suitable for the purpose.

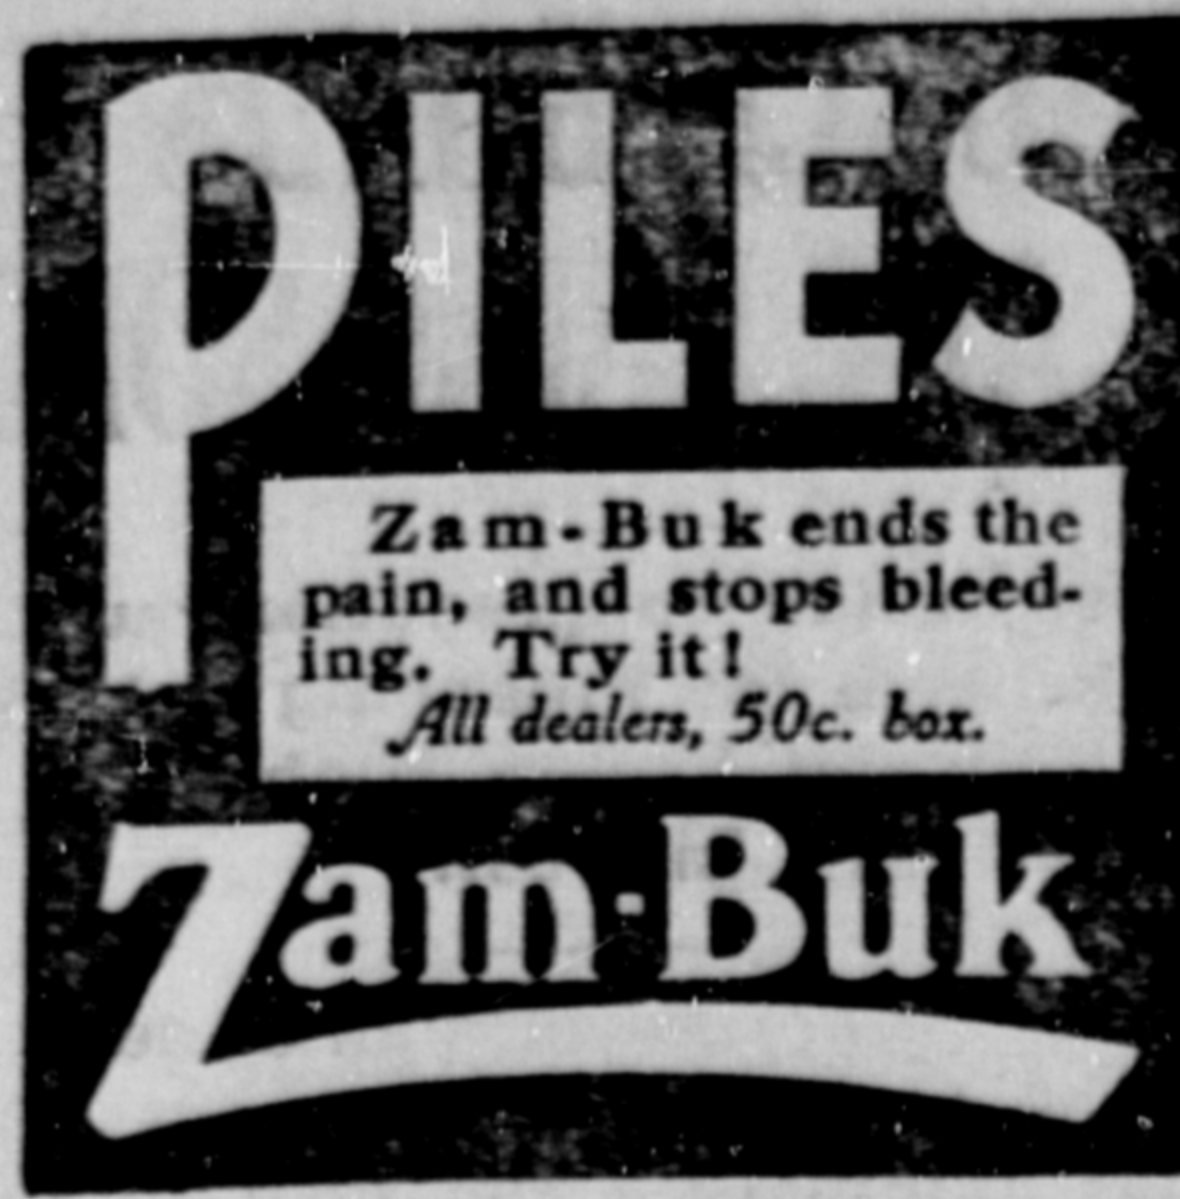

Steps are being taken to ascertain the location of suitable land in each district of British Columbia in which the soldiers may desire to locate, in order that the land may be immediately available when required.

Advertisement is being made calling for tenders to sell to the Soldier Settlement Board suitable land in each district of the province.

The object of the Government is not only to settle soldiers, but to increase agricultural production by bringing under cultivation land not now producing or inadequately farmed.

The land which will be approved by the Soldier Settlement Board for purchase will be land of high agricultural quality and moderate value and of such a character that the settler will have every reasonable chance, from the products of the farm, to earn subsistence for himself and family and repay the loan, which is extended over a long term of easy payments.

While the demand for such locations at the start will be very moderate in comparison with the vast supply of land available, and no large turnover of lands is expected, advertisement has been made widespread, as it is desired to have on hand in the offices of the Soldier Settlement Board in Victoria an approved list of suitable locations in each district, which could be placed at the disposal of the soldier who desires to settle in a particular locality.

"TARZAN OF THE APES" VERY SPECTACULAR

Most Interesting and Spectacular Film That Has Been Here in Many Moons.

The Westholme Theatre was packed to the doors last night for the opening of "Tarzan of the Apes," the most spectacular and interesting film that has been here for many a day.

The story tells of the bringing up of a white baby by a she ape and of the gradual development of the young savage. Parallel with it is the story of the Gray-stoke family in England, the search for the heir to the estate and title and the love scene between Tarzan and the girl who is out to look for him.

While the closing scene of the story seems rather abrupt it will be continued in the sequel which will be here in the near future. There should be another bumper house tonight.

"GIRL WITHOUT A SOUL" AT EMPRESS THEATRE

The Film at the Empress Tonight is an Unusual One.

"The Girl Without a Soul" is played by Viola Dana. It is the story of twin sisters, Unity and Priscilla Beaumont. Priscilla has a talent for the violin, and is flattered by a travelling musician into believing that he can make her famous. Unity has no talent, except that of being lovable. She is told by her temperamental sister that she has no soul.

Ivor, the musician, persuades Priscilla to rob the junior church trustee's strong-box to get the money for her debut. The money has been put aside for the new church organ, and only the young trustee is supposed to know its whereabouts, but he has divulged the secret to Unity, his fiancée. Both are suspected of the theft. Strong dramatic scenes abound in "The Girl Without a Soul," which has a powerful climax. Viola Dana plays both Priscilla and Unity in this unusual photodrama.

Queen Charlotte Islanders cannot do better than mail their printing needs to The News Print Shop and get the work done promptly and well.
