

Zam-Buk
Saved me a lot of money

writes Mr. R. Howard, Sr., of Bracebridge, Ont. He continues: "Four years ago I sustained a scratch on my leg, which turned to an ulcer. I was confined to my bed for six months under doctors' treatment, during which time I did not earn a cent, and in addition, spent dollars upon dollars before a cure was effected.

"Recently I sustained a scratch on my other leg. It became very inflamed and swollen, and finally turned to an ulcer. This time, however, I knew about Zam-Buk, and I acted very differently. I used Zam-Buk alone, with the result that not only was the ulcer healed in much shorter time than the previous one, but I was able to go to work all the time it was healing, and I did not lose a single day's pay. I sincerely hope that my experience may be the means of showing other working people the great healing value of Zam-Buk and of saving many from needless expense and unnecessary suffering."

Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema and all skin diseases, ringworm, boils, piles, cuts, burns, etc. 50c box, 3 for $1.25, all druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send 1c stamp for postage on free trial box.

GREAT EMOTIONAL ACTRESS TONIGHT

Theda Bara as Russian Heroine is Instrument of Death for Many.

Lovers of motion pictures which interest and enthrall will welcome the news that Theda Bara is to appear at the Westholme Theatre tonight in her newest William Fox production, "The Rose of Blood."

Miss Bara portrays a Russian heroine. But Lisza Tapenka is different from every other leading lady of Slavonic origin. She is a Russian who fights, made of the same stuff which formed the brave Legion of Death.

Lisza allies herself with a band of revolutionists who are seeking the freedom of the Empire. She is successful in assassinating several persons whose acts of oppression have made the lot of the people more miserable. She signifies the completion of her deeds by dropping a blood-colored rose on the body of each victim.

Finally her band demand the death of her own husband. He is the Prime Minister, and his hand bears more heavily than that of any other. She had married him in his younger days, before he rose to so prominent a place.

Fighting between her love for him and her desire to free the downtrodden people, Lisza finally succumbs to the right. She blows up a building which houses the Premier and all of his cabinet.

"THE OTHER WOMAN" IS A BOHEMIAN STORY

Uncongenial Married Life Leads to Complications Where Man Looks Outside for Amusement.

"The Other Woman," which is to be seen at the Empress tonight is a story of a situation in married life which is all too frequent—that where the husband finds his home life uncongenial and seeks his amusement outside, with the result that eventually he finds another woman who comes to mean more to him than his wife. In life such situations are the cause of many divorces. In this play the other woman sacrifices herself in order to make the wife happy.

The picture shows a side of New York life which is becoming more than local celebrity—the so-called Bohemianism of the art colony in old "Greenwich Village." This Bohemianism has been faithfully transcribed by director Parker and forms a very interesting feature of the picture.

We Know Where the Milk Goes

We used to wonder where all the milk we put up was going. The personal house-to-house investigations have shown us. We find that dozens of homes buy it by the case—and use no other milk at all. Others buy a dozen tins at a time. Many homes use it for cooking, and get fresh milk only for the children. Have you tried it yet?
