Just as Good as In the Big Cities.
 There is rather a tendency in the city to make light of local institutions. It is not uncommon, especially among young people, to hear disparaging remarks of the picture houses and the films which are shown. As a matter of fact the movie houses here are well up to the average, both in the accommodation and also in the class of picture shown.

All the pictures that are worth seeing are early or late shown in this city. There has not been a really big feature which has passed by without the people here getting a chance to see it. Sometimes they are slow getting here. It must not be expected that they will come as soon as they do in the cities that are in the circuits. They generally get here about the time they are taking their second runs in Vancouver.

They are just as good here, however, as they are in Vancouver or Victoria. Sometimes they are a little old but they are the same pictures. The quality is the same. On account of there being but two shows here as against a large number in the big cities it is possible to pick fairly high class showings all the time so that if anything the average here is better than in any house in the big centres.

Business Integrity Is Great Asset.
 The whole fabric of modern business and industry is based on confidence, says the Financial Post. Anyone, be he retailer, wholesaler, or manufacturer, who breaks faith with another, takes a slash at business in general. There are those who break their contracts when prices decline, and feel safe in the knowledge that it would cost too much to litigate, and the judgment would not cover all the loss of money, and none of the loss of time. Sometimes a real business man does get disgusted, and in spite of his loss, he gives the offender a lesson on the ethics of business for the benefit of the country in general. There are, however, large numbers of the small calibre business man who manage to stay in business, sit tight while markets rise, and welsh when prices decline—usually escaping the penalty, probably because the game is not worth the ammunition.

Clever Tricks But Dishonest.
 It has been known for a carload of canned fish from the Pacific coast, packed and labelled to the order of an Atlantic house, to be cancelled by wire a few days before date of shipment because the market has declined, and the shipper, with a carload of canned fish on his hands, was told, "He could use his own judgment about shipping, but the stock would be refused on inspection." What powers of clairvoyance! It has been known that a carload of eastern jams had been accepted en route only on greatly modified terms, by the consignee in the west, which simply meant that goods were received under terms and at prices which, had the shipper known, the goods would never have been shipped. It has been known that cars of fresh fruit from the fertile valley of the Fraser have been refused on arrival on the Prairie—except they were delivered to the "Buyer" on consignment only, and the wily shipper, instead of "falling," took the night train, and reached the Prairie point to find the cars well iced, and unopened.
 There is a serious lack of the fundamental basic principles of honesty evident among some engaged in business, and it is the duty of every business men to stamp out the unprincipled, unethical member wherever his presence is discovered. Make it unprofitable to be morally as well as legally dishonest.

Trout Fishing Opens During Coming Week.
 The trout fishing season opens next week. While it is yet a little early for good results it will not be long before local anglers will be away to the streams and will be seen returning with strings of speckled beauties.
 Fishing is good in this neighborhood. For those who can get that far the Khtada Lake and river offer great opportunities, but there are plenty of points nearer home where the dolly varden or the brook trout can be lured from their haunts by fly or bait.
 Already there are a number of ardent waitonites who are overhauling their tackle and will be out to test out the best pools just as soon as the season opens.
