Westinghouse ELECTRIC RANGES

Did it ever occur to you that the cost of operating an Automatic Electric Range, including the cost of power, for water heating is actually less than the cost of coal used for the same purpose?

Isn't such information worthy of your consideration?
We are distributors for the Canadian Westinghouse Company and as such are prepared to offer our guarantee, backed by that of our principals, that Westinghouse Automatic Ranges are the very best made and the most economical of operation.

We will undertake the complete installation for you at a reasonable figure. May we now submit our proposition?

PATTULLO RAPS OPPOSITION FOR INSINUATIONS

Defends Policy of the Provincial Government and Tells of Co-operation Regarding Soldier Settlement.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, in the legislature last week gave the opposition some sharp raps over the knuckles in connection with what he termed their unreasonable and groundless insinuations that the Liberal Government was not doing its duty.

Very briefly and concisely he reviewed some of the transactions and legislation carried out and left it to the common sense of his hearers to say whether or not there was anything the Government should be ashamed of.
On the other hand they had every reason to be proud of the progress made.

Mr. Pattullo had just been preceded in the debate by W. R. Ross, member for Fort George, whose interesting wanderings in search of something with which to criticize the administration had resulted in taking up almost the entire evening. Mr. Pattullo considered that the speech by Mr.
Ross was a very high tribute to the administration of the Land Department, for the only item in regard to which Mr. Ross had raised any question was one relating to a sum of $30. Considering the thousands upon thousands that had been handled Mr. Pat-tullo thought this a pretty good record.

In Chaotic State.

When the present Government took office it was common knowledge that the administration of the Land Department was in a pitiful state of chaos and it was next to impossible for a settler to locate on a suitable piece of land. Very gross complaints were made throughout the country as to the manner in which the late Government had handled the situation. Within one month of taking office the present Government took steps to remedy this and land was brought back under Government control along the lines of transportation so that they could be made available for the bona fide settler. The Government's land settlement policy was generally recognized as an excellent one by those who were sufficiently interested to look into it and render judgment on it without political prejudice.

Agreed With Dominion.

Mr. Pattullo explained the agreement whereby the Dominion Government undertook full responsibility for laying down a policy for the returned soldier and at the meeting of the Provincial Premiers with the Federal authorities the Provinces had undertaken to co-operate to the limit of their capacity. The Federal Government distinctly stated that it did not wish any overlapping or any interference on the part of the Provinces.

Doing Its Utmost.

British Columbia was doing its utmost in behalf of the returned man and it was a fact that the Soldiers' Settlement Policy laid down by this Government was only now, after two years, being adopted by the Federal authorities. The Province, said Mr. Pat-tullo, was prepared to transfer lands to the Dominion Soldier Settlement Board to help carry out its plans, to link up roads, furnish schools and supply any other government assistance.

The Government was ready to go even further than the delegates of the Empress of Asia community scheme, Kirchner and Walker had suggested, and in view of the approval of the Government's proposals he was rather surprised at the reports in the newspapers respecting the alleged utterances of those returned officers.

Shipbuilding.

Mr. Pattullo reviewed the timber situation of the province and as a result of the Government's activities large orders were now being received, an order for seventy million feet having been negotiated just recently. He referred to the wonderful shipbuilding policy trotted out by the opposition just prior to the last election and asked where the fleet of ships were now that was supposed to carry British Columbia produce to the world's markets.
They were all down in United States ports loading lumber for

HAVE YOU NICE HANDS?

You can have if you use Zam-Buk regularly. Women who do their own housework, and constantly have their hands in water, say nothing equals Zam-Buk for keeping the hands in good condition.
Or, if your hands are chapped, one thorough application of Zam-Buk at night will bring ease by morning, and continued use of this balm will heal the cracks and roughness.

Miss Della Martel, of 35 McKay St., Ottawa, says: "For two winters I suffered acutely from cracked and chapped hands. I tried various salves, which seemed to do them good for a time, but as soon as I went out doors my hands would become just as bad as ever. A friend advised me to try Zam-Buk, and it was really wonderful how even the first application of this balm stopped the smarting and drew out the sore-ness. In a very short time my hands were quite smooth again. Now I rub Zam-Buk on my hands occasionally all through the winter, and never have any trouble from cracks or chaps."

For frost-bite, chilblains, cold sores, eczema, boils, ulcers, blood-poisoning, cuts, burns and scalds, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers, 50c. box.

Shanghai and other ports. The whole scheme had been worked out by an astute gentleman named Brown, who was cute enough to go ahead with operations on the basis of "Heads I win, tails you lose."

RUBBER AT AIRPLANES, FEED THE ANIMALS

Carl Johnson will be leaving on an early boat for the Outside to enjoy a vacation, after being employed as linotype operator for The Empire for over seven years, says The Alaska Empire.

Mr. Johnson will join his wife in Seattle and visit his parents there. He will then have a rubber at airplanes circling the air, poke sticks at and feed the animals at the zoos, watch the growing things and revel in the flowers at the parks, revisit all of his old haunts, and may decide to continue to the sunny South, and soak up the sunshine for a time where the oranges and lemons grow.

The members of The Empire staff will have him tagged so that he can return "Upside right with care" and will give him plenty of advice on how to work the latest Alaska confidence games against he outside confidence men.
