

CO-OPERATIVE BUILDING AS IN VICTORIA

Plan Adopted by Greater Victoria Society Provides for Loans Without Interest.

Yesterday the Daily News telegraphed to William Marchant of Victoria asking for particulars regarding building societies in which he is interested. The reply came back at once as follows:

"The Greater Victoria Building Society is a typical terminating building society. It has issued 1200 shares of $400 each payable $2.50 monthly and issues loans of $1,000 each per share repayable $7.50 monthly, without interest.

"The priority of loans is decided by drawings, and four shares is the maximum number any one person may take. A small charge is made quarterly to defray management expenses.

"The society is incorporated under the Investment and Loan Society's Act and is truly co-operative. There are no promotion shares or profits nor any but ordinary members.

"The officers are composed of five directors, a secretary, treasurer, a solicitor and a valuator.

"After the last loan is issued the society begins to repay the share capital to the members. The life of the society is about 25 years and this class of society should be very suitable to meet the conditions in Prince Rupert."

"OLD WIVES FOR NEW" IS WELL RECEIVED

Ripping Good Film Shown at the Westholme Will be Repeated Tonight.

"Old Wives for New" was the film which was particularly well received by a well filled house at the Westholme last night. It is a strong play dealing with matrimonial infidelities.

The theme of "Old Wives for New" deals with the lives of a man and woman who married in the heat of youthful passion and the husband ruins his precipitancy when his wife becomes slovenly and lazy, while he, on the contrary, gains rather than loses with advancing years.

Another woman enters upon the scene, whom the man loves, and this ultimately results in his wife obtaining a divorce. Later the man marries the other woman after she had dragged him from the jaws of death. The story searches the souls of the persons involved and betrays the unrest that gnaws at the heart of social conditions like a worm at the bud of a frail flower.

ARMY AND NAVY VETS' CONCERT IS TONIGHT

Empress Theatre is to be Scene of Musical and Terpsichorean Entertainment.

The Army and Navy Veterans are putting on a grand concert this evening in the Empress Theatre, which promises to be one of the best. There is a splendid program arranged, consisting of vocal solos, instrumental solos and dancing, and every number will be well worth listening to.

The Army and Navy Veterans, although a comparatively young society, are nothing if not energetic and capable, and the concert fare provided for this evening will show their quality as entertainers.

The concert commences at 8 o'clock. There are no reserved seats and tickets may be obtained at Orme's.
