PRESENTATION TO MRS. STILLWELL FROM WESTHOLME STAFF

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid, Thard Ave., was the scene of a merry gathering last night, when a number of the friends of Mrs. Stillwell gathered to bid her farewell prior to her leaving for Portland a few days hence.

An interesting feature of the occasion was the presentation of a gold wrist watch to Mrs. Stillwell by the manager Paul Avazoff and the staff of the Westholme Theatre as a token of respect and esteem. The presentation was made by Paul Edmunds who voiced the feeling of all.

Among those who were present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. R. D. J. Smith, Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Gratton, Paul Avazoff, Mr. and Mrs. Will Edmunds, Miss Elsie Shaw, Mrs. Jessie Barry, Miss May Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Allan, C. Balagno, W. Balagno, C. Cocks and J. Rose.

Tom Lee was fined $5 in the police court this morning before Magistrate McMullin for a violation of the early closing bylaw yesterday afternoon.

Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association.

Our Glasses Are Handsome

EXAMINE a pair of our glasses. Notice the crystal, clear material in the lenses—the highly polished and flawless surface. Feel the smooth, perfectly formed edge. See how carefully the mount is attached—secure, safe.

NOW put them on. Let your mirror tell the story. Makes you look younger? Surely. Brighter? Certainly. Handsomer? Of course.

WHY not let us make you a pair? Our glasses are beyond question the highest quality, and the handsomest obtainable. You will really not be satisfied with anything less.

We promise you satisfaction—
We keep our promises

T. M. Orvig, the boat builder at Seal Cove, has another fishing boat just about completed. This one is to be fitted up with twin screws, which is a little out of the common among gas boats here. She will have two engines, one for each propeller, and the vessel will be used by the owner for trolling.

A runaway occurred on Borden Street yesterday afternoon, when the horse of Tom Lee, vegetable dealer, ran down Summit Avenue straight through the fence at the cross roads where Summit Ave. runs into Borden Street. The driver jumped out of the rig before reaching this place, so escaped uninjured. The only damage done was the breaking of the shafts and the harness, and a few bruises on the horse.

H. B. Rochester of the Hotel Prince Rupert has received a letter of commendation and thanks from J. D. McAuley, secretary of the Canadian Club, for the able manner in which he catered to the Canadian Club for their luncheon to Newman Erb on Tuesday. The opinion of the members was generally expressed to the effect that the luncheon was first rate and that Mr. Rochester showed a good deal of public spirit in putting himself out to undertake the duty.
