WONG KIM AND LEE HONG ARE DISMISSED

Chow Hing, Lee Hong and Wong Kim appeared before Judge Young this morning in the County Court on a theft charge. New evidence was given by a Japanese who said that about three weeks ago Chow Hing walked into his store and left a parcel with him, saying that he was leaving town for a while and would like him to keep it for him until he came back. The parcel was discovered by Constable Duff a short while afterwards and proved to contain the missing suits of clothes, except one pair of pants.

As this evidence contradicted Chow Hing's statement, Lee Hong and Wong Kim were dismissed. Chow Hing is remanded for sentence tomorrow at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ben. Self was among the passengers leaving for Seattle last night on the Prince Rupert. She will stay with her people for a short time in Bellingham, Wash.
