

A CRIPPLE FOR THREE YEARS

Helpless In Bed With Rheumatism Until He Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

MR. ALEXANDER MUNRO
R.R. No. 1, Lorne, Ont.
"For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. During that time, I had treatment from a number of doctors, and tried nearly everything I saw advertised to cure Rheumatism, without receiving any benefit.
Finally, I decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Before I had used half a box, I noticed an improvement; the pain was not so severe, and the swelling started to go down.
I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles and do light chores about the place."
ALEXANDER MUNRO.

MOST REFRESHING IS PLAY "SET FREE"

Edith Roberts as Heroine With Gypsy Blood in Her Veins, is Romantic.

In "Set Free" to be screened at the Empress Theatre this evening, which stars Edith Roberts, the roguish and tantalizing, is to be seen a photoplay of a most refreshing kind. It is a pleasant change from the blood and thunder and emotional kind of thing of which so many photoplays are composed.
"Set Free" is a simple story, clean, wholesome and delightful, splendidly acted and highly interesting. Edith Roberts as the heroine is very satisfactory. Yearning for romance, she finds an old letter in her aunt's house telling of the old family tradition that her great-great-grandmother was a gypsy. The young girl, therefore, obeys the call of the blood and discovers that romance and the gypsy life are totally different things. Romance, however ends the tale.
There is also a side-splitting comedy, "The Vamp of the Camp" as well as a Sidney Drew number, which makes the Empress program this evening one of the best yet.

SESSUE HAYAKAWA TO BE AT WESTHOLME

The famous Japanese actor, Sessue Hayakawa, will be seen in a fine drama, "The Bravest Way," at the Westholme tonight. In this play the noble sacrifice of a gardener is featured. The scene is laid in a western town and is one of the strongest plots that has been shown. It is different and fresh and should prove a great attraction.

FRESH FISH FOR VICTORIA MARKET

At last it seems possible that Victorians may have fresh fish delivered direct from the fishing banks, a firm having commenced here which has got direct connections with the fishermen of British Columbia, says the Victoria Colonist. The new enterprise has been started by Henry Thompson, of this city, who is being assisted in the business by his sons. Mr. Thompson has secured premises on the waterfront behind the Hudson's Bay Company's buildings, and has had plans prepared for up-to-date smoke houses, it being the intention of the firm to smoke fish immediately on arrival, thus ensuring to householders an article which is well preserved in all respects. Mr. Thompson has been connected with the fish business for over thirty years and is looked upon by the local merchants as most experienced in the trade. The firm have made connection with the fishing depots all along the West Coast, and a direct line has been established with Banfield by fishing schooners and gas boat. Mr. Thompson has been assured by local merchants of their trade.
