SCOTTY DENNIS AND GEORGE SELLERS ARE HOME FROM THE WAR

Scotty Dennis, one of Prince Rupert's first printers, who formerly owned the Premier Press, returned yesterday afternoon from overseas by way of Vancouver, coming north on the Princess Mary.

He left here in July, 1915, with the 62nd Battalion, transferred to the 48th and later became a member of a work battalion constructing light railways close behind the front lines. Needless to say he had a good many interesting experiences and can tell many tales of life in France.

George Sellers, another Prince Rupert man, arrived back with Scotty. Both were met at the boat and were received with hearty expressions of welcome by their old friends.

PRINCE RUPERT GETS $50,000 FOR HOUSING

The Money is to be Applied to Providing for Returned Soldiers.

Prince Rupert is to get $50,000 from the Dominion Housing fund to be used for the purpose of helping returned soldiers to own their homes, and if any should be left to be loaned to others for building purposes.

The amount at first allocated to this city was $18,000, but as a good many municipalities did not require any money and the need here is great, the Government has set aside $50,000 for this point.

Already there are a number of applications in from returned men and a good many men have not yet returned from overseas, so that it is possible the returned men may use the whole of the money.

It is left to Acting Mayor McRae to advertise for applications for the money from returned men.

ANOTHER DEAL SOON ON HUDSON BAY HILL

That another of the more promising mining properties on Hudson Bay hill will figure in a deal and be taken over for operation this summer is well within the range of possibility, negotiations to that end now being under way, says the Interior News. The arrangements are being handled by an engineer who inspected the property last summer, and he is dealing with an American syndicate attracted by the high silver values in the ore of this section.

Nothing definite is available beyond the bare fact that a proposition is now in the hands of the owners, but the terms are such that there is a good prospect for the deal going through.

With silver alone standing up under the test of post-war conditions, Hudson Bay mountain and the entire district is sure to command considerable attention this summer.

Offers were accepted by the City Council last night for lots 1, 2 and 3, Block 30, Section 2; for John A. Murray for $101; and for lot 9, block 11, Section 1 from David H. Hays for $210. These lots are liable to be redeemed before next autumn.

Captain Bell of the Northwest Mounted Police force, passed through here yesterday afternoon en route to Alaska.
