According Willie Martin of the Cadet Corps, to a general order issued by W. who handled the sticks with good P. Hinton, general manager of the effect. 3. T. P., and approved by Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways and Canals, receiver, Mr. Porter IDEAS OF JUSTICE has been named assistant to the general manager with headquarters in the Department of Railways and Canals at Ottawa, where he will represent and act for the general manager in all matters pertaining to the receivership. H. H. Hansard, solicitor of the G. T. ceiver to assist him in all legal matters.

Whatever the outcome may be of the passing of the G. T. P. railway into the hands of a receiver, tice of the Ameer. He did so, and the selection of Mr. Porter, a western man of over thirty years' experience in the west, will be pleasing to the people of this part of Canada. Mr. Porter has had a long and varied experience in railroad affairs which should stand him and the people in good stead. He comes of a family engaged in railroad work in England and he himself started railroading in the Old Country over thirtylive years ago, while still very young. After spending some time in the employ of the C. P. R. in the west, Mr. Porter became homestead inspector in what is now Saskatchewan, and obtained an intimate knowledge of the needs of the settler. Upon the formation of the Saskatchewan Department of Railways, he became its first deputy minister and quarter. later still passed into the service of the Grand Trunk Pacific as its executive agent, and has now, under the receivership, become assistant to the general manager of that system. Mr. Porter's home is in Victoria.

BAZAAR AND CONCERT AT SEAL COVE SCHOOL

Sum of $151 Raised in Aid of St. Peter's Church by Women's Auxiliary.

There was a most successful bazaar and concert in the Seal Cove school yesterday under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove. As a result the sum of $151 was added to the funds, clear of all expenses.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick was in charge of the bazaar and it was opened by Mrs. Rix.

At the concert, which was an exceptionally good one, R. Pattinson presided and Mrs. Pattinson was the accompanist. The solosts were Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. Darton, Miss G. Hills, Mrs F. Swanson, Horace Tattersall, Geo. S. Grimble, V. Tattersall and R. Pattinson. Recitations were given by Bessie Barry, Muriel Knightail and Doris Candow.

FOCH'S AUTHORITY

The "Figaro" publishes this concerning General Winterfeldt. This German officer received the French Cross of Honor on the day following the automobile accident in which he was injured in pre-war manoeuvres in South-west France. On November 11 last Winterfeldt dared to appear before Marsha Foch wearing this decoration on his tunic. Foch, fixing his eyes on the decoration, remarked quietly, "I authorize you, sir, to remove it."

IN AFGANISTAN ARE SOMEWHAT CRUDE

The late Ameer of Afghanistan kept order in his dominion in his lown way, says a London corres-P., will act as solicitor to the re- pondent. Sir Charles Euan Smith when British Resident at Kabul, was insulted by an Afghan in the bazaar. Sir Charles looked on the matter in a serious light, and determined to bring it under the nowas surprised at what seemed to him the Ameer's off hand way of treating the complaint.

He called on the Ameer again, and received the same cold comfort, and even a third time, with like result.

About a week elapsed, and Sir Charles was summoned to the Palace and invited to take a ride with His Highness. When they got outside the city they passed gibbet after gibbet. The Ameer made no reference to the weird sight, and in the end Sir Charles ventured to observe. "Your Highness seems to have been busy of

The Ameer smiled and said, 'Oh, that's your little lot. You will have no more trouble in that

Sir Charles afterwards learned that the Ameer had arrested every man member of the family of the native of whose conduct he had complained, and had hanged the whole of them.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENT

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land. Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant. Where 1 3-emptor in occupation not less than 3 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $300 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted

AVOID ALUM IN FOOD

Baking Powder is one of the most important food ingredients. Alum or other injurious acids are frequently used by some concerns to lower the cost of production.

BAKING POWDER

Contains No Alum

It is a pure phosphate baking powder and is guaranteed to be the best, purest and most healthful baking powder possible to produce.

W. Matthew Williams, in "Chemistry of Cooking." says: "Phosphates are the bonemaking material of food and have something to do with building up of brain and nervous matter."
