

SPRING CLEANING DANGERS

Every housekeeper knows how often little injuries are met with during "spring cleaning" time and how easily the sore place becomes infected with dust and germs. The danger of this lies in the fact that injuries—slight at first, if not attended to, may become inflamed, fester, cause great suffering and inconvenience, and frequently lead to blood-poisoning.

To safeguard yourself, apply Zam-Buk at once to all cuts, scratches, abrasions, burns and scalds. This antiseptic balm immediately destroys all germs and prevents any danger of festering or blood-poisoning. Zam-Buk also ends pain and stops bleeding so quickly that no time need be lost by those who apply it as soon as an injury is sustained. Then the healing essences in Zam-Buk actually grow new skin, so that in a comparatively short time the wound is completely healed.

Zam-Buk is best for eczema, boils, pimples, rashes, ulcers and piles. All dealers, 50c. box.

"THE WINDING TRAIL" AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Viola Dana, the Brilliant Little Star, in Story of Love and Revenge.

Danger and the desert cast a spell of romance over this brilliant story of love and revenge. "The Winding Trail" shows the charming little star, Viola Dana, to remarkable advantage. In this colorful story of Western mining days in 1870, she is seen first as Audrey Graham, a Broadway danseuse of tremendous triumphs and later, for reasons of necessity, masquerading as a child, then as a typical western dance-hall girl in a rough mining camp, and finally in the swiftly-moving life of the plains and the desert. The story is told in picture at the Empress tonight.

FARNUM THE STRONG .AT THE WESTHOLME

Those who missed seeing William Farnum's great play "Rough and Ready" at the Westholme last night missed a treat, but they have another chance of seeing it tonight.

It deals chiefly with life in the Yukon among the miners, and gambling joints and in the cabarets. Of course there is a love theme but it is out of the ordinary and the other features of the plot are uncommon.

Everyone loves a strong man and Farnum is that. The big fight is something not to be missed.

CORNER LOUNGING

To A. Ruffneck, Esq.,

Your lecture on lounging apologetics I have read with interest. Suffer me to remark thereon as follows:

First, you possess a fluency of the mother tongue which might be used to better advantage than to uphold anyone who stands perpetually on street corners with his hands in his pockets staring at ladies who pass.

Second, I invite you to consult any lady of Prince Rupert regarding her idea on this subject and you will learn for yourself whether or not she experiences embarrassment and even insult in passing the corner of Third and Sixth. If you are not aware that it is an insult to a lady to be stared at as if she were a caged exhibit, it is high time you refer to your friends, the ancient Greek philosophers, for their opinion on chivalry. You should also know that, although to stand and gaze at a woman passing you on the street is not in some localities a police court offense, it is nevertheless not the act of any man of gentlemanly instincts.

Third, I do not agree with you that the gang who stands on that corner are our good friends the loggers, the prospectors, the fishermen and the miners, as from my observation of such men for the past two years I have generally found that they possess a profound and deep-seated respect for any lady and would never willingly cause her embarrassment.

And fourth, please do not comment further in favor of the corner gauntlet through which our ladies must daily pass, as we in Canada maintain a respect for women, and it was only in pre-war Germany and Austria where women must take to the street in order to allow men the use of the sidewalk.

I respectfully refer you as reciprocal advice to the saying of Mr. Socrates which you very kindly drew to my attention. Yours in debate, O. V. I.

J. P. Hawkins has gone to North Island, about 20 miles north of Masset, to open a supply house for fishermen for the season.
