We have the Waltham Opera style, the Green Verithin, the Hamilton and other reliable makes.

Most of these watches are sold at prices established by the factories, which gives you the assurance that you pay us here in Rupert no more than if you were in Montreal.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE FOR SELLING WINE TO WHITE INDIAN

The charge against H. W. McKerrow, manager of Thorpe & Co. Ltd., at Vancouver, for selling an Indian by the name of William Dudoward "ginger wine" which after being tested by H. T. Cross was shown to contain 2.4 per cent alcohol, was brought before C. C. Perry, Indian agent, yesterday afternoon in his office. He was found guilty and let out on suspended sentence.

Dominion Constable A. J. Watkinson told of having seized from William Dudoward, chief of the Port Simpson Indians, on the Port Simpson wharf, six cases of ginger wine from Thorpe's Limited. It was tested by H. T. Cross of the customs department, and his test showed the wine to contain 2.4 per cent alcohol. The Indian is living on the Port Simpson Indian reserve.

Tested for Alcohol.

The evidence given by H. T. Cross was that he was employed as an appraiser and part of his duties were to test wines, alcohols, etc. This particular sample of wine handed to him by Constable Watkinson contained 2.4 per cent alcohol, but he did not think it intoxicating.

Evidence was also given by J. F. Maguire, agent for Thorpe & Co., Ltd., who sold the Indian the wine. He did not think it contained any alcohol, neither did he know that Dudoward was an Indian, either by his appearance or his manner of speech. He took him to be a white merchant.

Mr. Perry ordered the goods to be confiscated and destroyed.

FOOD SCARCITY IS BEING FELT IN ITALY

Rome, April 24.—The critical food situation in Italy is augmented by serious epidemics. The foot and mouth disease has reappeared among the cattle, which die off as they did in the terrible epidemic of 1908. Already meat prices have risen fabulously. Beef which is a quarter bone, costs $1.40 a pound; lard costs $2 a pound; ham, $3.50. Mutton, which previously could be had for 30 cents, now is hard to get for 90 cents. A small pork spare-rib costs 35 cents and cold storage veal costs $2.20 a pound. An increase in these prices is predicted.

The spirit of Sunlight is purity and cleanliness.
