SWIMMING CLUB ANNUAL DANCE

Interesting Event at St. Andrew's Hall Last Night Provides Enjoyable Time.

That swimmers can dance and dancers can swim was clearly proven last night by the fact that the Swimming Club dance given at St. Andrew's hall was one of the events of the season. In spite of the fact that on two previous nights there had been dances in the same hall and that there were numerous other social attractions there was a good attendance and a most enjoyable time was spent. Professor Harvey's orchestra with the tonic of the Martin jazz added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

The decorations were unique, the swimming feature being well emphasized. Refreshments were donated by several business firms including G. W. Nickerson Co., Kelly, Douglas & Co., George Frizzell, P. Burns & Co. and F. G. Dawson, Ltd. Ben Self donated the table decorations.

During the evening J. C. Brady gave a short address on the work of the Swimming Club in which he urged all to join the club and learn to swim. The work which was laid out at the Salt Lakes to be done this year would make the bathing place the best without exception on this coast. Not only would there be ample provision for the swimmers and divers but a sandy beach was to be made for the use of the beginners. The healthy exercise and the general value of swimming was dilated upon.

A number of club membership tickets were sold during the evening.

her. It was the only honorable thing to do, and, of course, she knew that he was a man of honor. But when her baby was born without the decency of a name, she realized that the man she loved was yellow under his veneer of suave kindness and that he had used her for the plaything, one of his many playthings.

Yet in the end she saw happiness with a good man who was big enough to realize that one mistake was not beyond forgiveness even in the women he loved. How Marjorie North's goodness of heart triumphed over evil and brought her safely into the harbor of happiness is shown graphically in "Playthings," a Bluebird photoplay, in which Fritzi Brunette stars as Marjorie North at the Empress Theatre tonight.

To tell the story would only take the edge off a keen photoplay.

CHARLES RAY IS MORE THAN "WONDER BOY"

Star of "A Nine O'Clock Town" is One of Most Capable of Screen Actors.

Charles Ray, popular screen star in Paramount pictures, is widely known as Thomas H. Ince's "Wonder Boy," but he is this and much more. Mr. Ray started his career from humble beginnings with a musical comedy show and became a screen star with startling rapidity.

Mr. Ray, who will be seen in his latest Paramount photoplay, "A Nine O'Clock Town," at the Westholme tonight was only a ribbon clerk but he told them he had managed Gimbel Brothers' store in New York. They believed him and told him to "go to it" at the local "Emporium." He did but the boy was good. When he got through he made them wish they were all "midnight devils in a nine o'clock town."

There is also a British Gazette and Charles Chaplin in "By the Sea." A good musical program will be provided by the Westholme orchestra.

BAIRNSFATHER AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

Most Popular British Film That Has Ever Been Made Comes Here Monday.

Everyone has laughed over the Bairnsfather pictures of the war. Now they have been done into films and will be shown at the Westholme at the beginning of the week.

Wherever this film has gone it has brought 'crowded houses. It is just showing at all the big cities and this city is in the circuit. "The Better 'Ole" is a classic, it is a message from the trenches to the people at home. It is the greatest cinema of the day. The three famous characters, Old Bill, Bert and Alf are brought to life. They are a revelation of the spirit of the trenches which carried the men to victory. They amuse and yet at times their pathos dims the eye.

THE BETTER 'OLE

THE ALL BRITISH WONDER FILM From the Famous Stage Success "The Romance of Old Bill" by Captain Bruce Bairnsfather

Now making a Tremendous Hit at Greenwich Theatre, New York, and Allen Theatres, Toronto and Montreal

The First Motion Picture to depict the Indefatigable "Carry-on" Spirit of the British Army.

Bringing to Life Those Three Famous Musketeers, Old Bill, Bert and Alf, in the Greatest Cinema of the Day.

THIS IS NOT AN ORDINARY MOTION PICTURE, IT IS THE GREATEST CINEMA OF THE DAY.

Old Bill, Bert and Alf, the Three Famous Cartoon Characters of Captain Bruce Bairnsfather, are famous the world over. In "The Better 'Ole" they are brought to life in the most wonderful motion picture of the war.

The secret of the story's wonderful fascination is its close and true analysis of the spirit which animates the men in the trenches—that spirit which keeps them cheerful under conditions almost indescribable. The army is full of Old Bills, Berts and Alfs with their sorrows and pleasures—pleasures that make the very word seem a mockery—but true reflections of what the daily life of the boys has been "over there." "The Better 'Ole" will do more than raise a laugh, and dim the eyes with tears at the pathos so piquantly drawn. It will make the people at home understand as never before why the Great War was fought to a bitter finish and how much is due to the Berts and Alfs and Old Bills who stood as a living wall of protection for the people at home.
