

WEEPING ECZEMA SOON RELIEVED

A Perfect Treatment For This
Distressing Complaint

WASING, ONT.
"I had an attack of Weeping Eczema; so bad that my clothes would be wet through at times. For four months, I suffered terribly. I could get no relief until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives' and 'Sootha Salva'. The first treatment gave me relief. Altogether, I have used three boxes of 'Sootha Salva' and two of 'Fruit-a-lives', and am entirely well!"
G. W. HALL.

Both these sterling remedies are sold by dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

"Fruit-a-lives" is also put up in a trial size which sells for 25c.

FISHING WAS DISCUSSED BY DELEGATION

Mayor McClymont and J. G. Scott
Placed Local Views Before
Ministers at Ottawa.

At the Council meeting Monday night the following report was made by the mayor in connection with the recent visit to Ottawa.

"An interview was had with Mr. Hunter, the deputy minister of fisheries, wherein it was pointed out the lack of accommodation and shelter for fishing craft and suggested the building of a wharf and necessary shelter at Shawatlans Passage, stating that unless accommodation was provided there was a danger of losing much of this business, which is a great asset to the country.

"We pointed out that we did not seek a very large appropriation but would like to see a start made in this direction, which would be added to from time to time as occasion demanded.

"This has already borne fruit, as the district engineer has been instructed to prepare plans and submit data.

"Your committee understood before leaving that if the Dominion Government would do this work that the Provincial Government would deed the land.

Salmon Fisheries.
"Regarding the salmon fishery we had an interview with the Hon. A. K. McLean, acting minister of fisheries, and pointed out the benefits to be derived by having more independent salmon fishermen instead of them being tied to the canneries as at present, and which method simply made work for Oriental fishermen who did not build up the community.

"We insisted that gas boats be allowed in our district so as to enable independent fishermen to market their fish in the best market as well as enabling them to get more quickly to and from the fishing grounds.

Cannery Monopoly.
"We protested against the cannery monopoly, claiming the right of any one to enter this business if they saw fit like any other interest, and that this would in no way impair the supply as the Government could take proper steps to meet the situation by having a longer closed period.

"We also raised objection to the fishery inspectors, claiming that they were too closely associated with the cannery interests and the community had no confidence in them.

No Faith in Commission.
"The minister pointed out that a commission had dealt with all these matters and reported its findings, but we insisted that the whole situation be reviewed, as there was a great amount of discontent owing to present methods, further pointing out that the proposed thirty licenses to be given to returned soldiers might not be taken advantage of to the fullest extent, as many of these men might not be physically able to handle row boats and their aim of providing work for these men would thus be defeated.

"In all of these matters we had the strong backing of Col. Peck and the situation unfolded was such that the minister agreed to have the whole situation in District No. 2 reviewed.

"THOMAS McClymont,
"J. G. SCOTT."
