DELEGATION MET SOLDIERS UP THE LINE

Returning Party Was Greeted at All Points Along Railway and Joined by Locals at Salvus.

Headed by Mayor McClymont and with George Frizzell as marshal, a representative party of citizens went up the line yesterday afternoon as far as Salvus to meet Lieut.-Col. Peck and his men. They travelled in a coach attached to the way freight. This coach was picked up at Salvus by the westbound express and as soon as under way the Colonel and the boys were invited to join the party where they were suitably greeted and refreshed.

It was a great sight to see the hearty handshakes that were given, to hear the exclamations of delight and the earnest words of welcome as the Colonel shook hands with his old friends whom he had not seen for well over four years.

The men were mostly unknown to the local delegation, but old friends and acquaintances were discovered among them by many and it was not long before all were happily swapping stories and inquiring for friends.

In the reception party J. D. McAuley and G. F. Johnson represented the railway company, Mr. Wakefield the United States Consulate, and every local organization had a representative. Chief Vickers represented the police department and he was successful in seeing that the drinks served were not stronger than legal requirements, but he failed to prevent a theft, that of George Frizzell's sandwich supper which had been carefully prepared and which he had watched with an eagle eye. However, there were consolations found.

All along the line the returned men were greeted. At Prince George there was a great demonstration, and also the visitors were waited on and cheered by the citizens at Vanderhoof, Smithers, Hazelton, Terrace and Haysport. At the last mentioned point a delegation had crossed from Port Essington to add their quota of welcome to that of all the others.

ROMANCE AND FUN IN "LESS THAN KIN"

Delightful Situations Features of Wallace Reid's Newest Photoplay.

The romance and fun of the average Central American revolution are admirably brought out in "Less Than Kin," the new Paramount photoplay, starring Wallace Reid and featuring dainty Ann Little, which will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

In this excellent picture Mr. Reid plays two roles—that of a ne'er-do-well, who is disowned by his family, and the other that of a man who has accidentally killed a man in defense of a woman, and who escapes from jail and finds refuge in Central America, where he drills a motley army of revolutionists. The resemblance between these two men is so startling that on the death of the ne'er-do-well, the refugee decides to assume his name and station and returns to New York, where his imposture brings about many highly diverting situations. In the end, however, he is pardoned and finds happiness and love in a charming girl.

WHY EXPERIMENT?

Food scientists claim that the leavener is largely responsible for the flavor, texture and wholesomeness of your home baking. That on no other one ingredient does so much depend. It is important, therefore, to use a baking powder that you know possesses the necessary leavening qualities.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

and is the only strictly high class baking powder in Canada selling at a moderate price. Its reputation is built on purity and highest quality.

The only well known medium priced baking powder made in Canada that does not contain alum and that has all its ingredients plainly stated on the label.
