

SPECIALIST SAID HE MUST OPERATE

She Took "FRUIT-A-LIVES" Instead,
And Is Now in Perfect Health.

MME. F. GAREAU

153 Papineau Ave., Montreal.
"For three years, I suffered great pain in the lower part of my body, with swelling or bloating. I saw a specialist, who carefully examined me and gave me several tonics to take, which did not help me. Then he told me I must undergo an operation. This, I refused to permit. I heard about 'Fruit-a-lives' and the wonderful results it was giving because this medicine is made from fruit juices, so decided to try it. The first box gave great relief; and I continued the treatment, taking six boxes more. Now, my health is excellent—I am free of pain and swelling—and I give 'Fruit-a-lives' my warmest thanks'."

LONDON POLICE ARE ORGANIZED

Want Recognition of Their Union
By Home Secretary—Complaints on Either Side.

London, May 11.—The Home Secretary, while admitting the police had a legitimate grievance, was very emphatic in assuring the House that no official recognition be extended to the London Police Trade Union. Little doubt is felt, however, that the cabinet is considerably uneasy about unrest in the London force.

It was stated that Sir Neville Macready, chief police commissioner, has gone to Paris to see Premier Lloyd George. Several thousand London police held a demonstration in Trafalgar Square on Sunday.

The police talk of barbarous punishment given certain members but the police chief declares some men have been dismissed for leaving their patrols at night and others for defying all authority.

AFGHAN TROUBLES STILL ARE BREWING

London, May 11.—The Russian Government wireless message says an Afghan mission has arrived in Moscow to establish relations between Afghanistan and Russia. This is in violation of a treaty between Afghanistan and Great Britain, under which Afghanistan is not allowed to enter into relations with any foreign country except Great Britain.

BISHOP SECOND ONLY TO MAJOR MANNOCK

London, May 10.—The air ministry has decided that so far as can be ascertained the champion British airman of the war was the late Major Edward Mannoock. Lieut.-Col. William A. Bishop, the Canadian aviator, who won the Victoria Cross, comes next. Major Mannoock brought down 73 enemy machines and Lieut.-Col. Bishop, 72.

Of all the allies Lieut. Rene Fonck, French ace, holds the record with 78.

The late Baron Richthofen of Germany, claimed to hold the world's record for the number of machines he had destroyed, but the Germans worked on a different system respecting official confirmation of each victory, and his record has not been confirmed.

Suppose That You Decide to Own A WATCH

Suppose that you believe that we can sell you a good watch.

Suppose that you call, look over our stock, and decide to take a Hamilton watch at $45.00, well—

Twenty years from now you will still be learning the time from that watch.

Which is an argument that ought to be plenty convincing to any watch buyer.
