ACCORD AT OTTAWA NOW IMPENDING ANNUAL EXHIBITION ARRANGEMENTS BEING PERFECTED

Canada and Great Britain Are Close To Agreement On Matter Of Reciprocal Trade Relations

New manager of W. H. Malkin Co. Ltd. here.

Even Experts Are Sinking Their Differences Over Value of Dominion's Offer—Proposed to Start All Over Again on Negotiations

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—British and Canadian delegations at the Empire economic conference are getting together. Canada and the United Kingdom, who previously were unable to come to an agreement over reciprocal trade offers, are now reported to have moved much closer to an accord. This morning Premier Bennett again met some of the British representatives and discussed the situation. No definite conclusions were reached but discussions are to continue this afternoon. Progress in every way is authoritatively reported. Desire was shown on both sides to accomplish something definite to secure a result that will be mutually satisfactory.

Report on Interview With City Council Presented to Labor League

A regular meeting of the Women's Labor League was held last night and the report of the delegations' interview with the city council caused much discussion.

In the report it was stated that no extra allowance for fresh milk could be made by the city but, for those on relief who really needed it, the city council would make arrangements whereby they could buy direct from the dairy and thus get milk much cheaper than in the past.

Fair Board Meets and Advances Program for Big Show This Month

Thursday is Declared Citizen's Day and Suitable Program Being Arranged—Attractions For Building Decided Upon—Elks to Operate Concessions

Arrangements for Prince Rupert's annual exhibition opening on August 30 this year are rapidly being perfected. Further progress toward this end was made at a meeting of the Fair Board last night when details of the program were worked out, concessions decided upon and other matters dealt with. President F. E. Wermig was in the chair and there was a good attendance of directors.

It was decided to appoint the Thursday as Citizens' Day at the Fair. During the afternoon there will be a City League baseball game and a sports program including circling the bases, fungo hitting, beating out the bunt to first, long throw, placing the throw to second and relay race for married and single baseball players. Suitable prizes will be awarded to the winners of each event.

Other sports will be staged some other afternoon or evening during the Fair.

The board decided on the following attractions for entertainment inside the building.

- Bathing beauty contest, each entrant to sell at least one book of membership tickets to qualify.
- Joey Arseneau in songs and dances.
- The Melody Trio.
- One Man Band.
- Barrel boxing for juveniles and adults.
- Children's dancing act.
- Tap dancing.
- Wrestling contest.
- Balloon blowing contest.

The Elks' Lodge will take over the concessions in connection with the exhibition, including refreshments, which will be operated on a percentage basis.

Something new for yachtswoman. dark blue belted reefer jacket and bell-bottomed stockinette trousers. The ensemble was seen at Cowes.

MART IS ERRATIC

Stocks Seesawed in New York Yesterday But Bulls Finally Triumphed

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Stocks seesawed through an erratic, active market yesterday but rallied and closed with steady tone.

At the outset the market ran into heavy profit-taking by European investors and short selling. However, the bulls fought against the downward trend and the market finished with net gains of a few cents to $1 in a number of issues.

United States Steel common lost $1.50.
