NEW SERIAL PROVES INTENSELY EXCITING

Feature for Tonight is "Brace Up"
In Addition to "Fight
For Millions."

"Brace Up" the great play starring Herbert Rawlinson, is to be put on at the Empress Theatre tonight. It is billed as the Great American play and is said to be a stunner. Rawlinson's work has been seen before at the Empress and attracted much attention. He is a real dramatist and in "Brace Up" is seen at his best.

Alice Howell's latest comedy "Hoot Toot" supported by Hughie Mack and Helen Gibson is a real fun maker.

The new serial which started last night, "A Fight for Millions" and which will be repeated tonight is in itself a complete story, well filmed and very interesting and toward the end intensely exciting. It is being repeated tonight so that all the patrons of this house may have a chance to see it.

COMEDY "ON THE QUIET" SHOWN AT WESTHOLME

Beautiful Girl and College Man
Are Central Figures
In Play.

One of the most reliable comedies produced by Paramount in years is "On the Quiet," which serves as John Barrymore's re-entrance into the silent drama, and which will be played at the Westholme Theatre tonight. The picture was directed by Chester Withey, and the story is based upon Augustus Thomas' famous stage success produced in New York in 1901.

The plot revolves about a rather wild college young man and a beautiful girl who falls heir to twenty millions, the receipt of which is wholly dependent upon her consummating a marriage in accordance with the wishes of her brother who is executor of their father's estate. She marries the student "on the quiet" and this provokes complications which are bound to hold the attention of every spectator to the final scene.

CHILDREN DROWNED

While Playing Near Their Home
at Telkwa Bo's were Carried Away by Strong Current.

According to reports brought to town from up river, the two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McRae of Telkwa were drowned in the Telkwa river on Wednesday last. The body of the eldest boy aged about four, has been recovered, and search parties have been out looking for the little one. Both the children were playing near their home when one of them attempted to wade in the stream. He soon got out of his depth and on his brother attempting to help both were swept away.

Mr. and Mrs. McRae are well known old timers in the Omineca District.

SOCIAL

Mrs. J. H. McLeod entertained at bridge last Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Jas. Carmichael. The fortunate prize winners were Mrs. Vance and Mrs. Carmichael.

The many friends of Mrs. C. W. Peck will be pleased to know they are to have the opportunity of welcoming her to their midst again. The Queen Mary Chapter I. O. D. E. is holding a reception next Thursday afternoon in the drawing rooms of the Prince Rupert Club, to which all old friends and any others desiring to meet Mrs. Peck are cordially invited. Mrs. Peck was active in the organization of this chapter several years ago, and was among the first office holders.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Darton of Seal Cove opened her home to her many young friends of the city. A very enjoyable time was spent in cards and dancing. Miss Stewart and Mr. Tinker carried off the prizes.

The present activity at Stewart has tempted Mr. and Mrs. R. Clothier to leave for that town. Although Mr. and Mrs. Clothier have been in Rupert only a short time they have made many friends who will regret to hear of their departure.

Last evening Mrs. Starr of the Waldron gave a bridge party. Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Carmichael were the "star" players of the evening.

It is with much regret Prince Rupert people will hear they are to lose one of the old timers in the person of Mrs. Carss who is leaving for Vancouver with her daughter, Mrs. Wilson.

Next Friday, May 23, being Empire Day the Daughters of the Empire are planning a patriotic demonstration for the school children. The Westholme Theatre and orchestra have been engaged for the occasion. Patriotic addresses will be given by some of the ministers and public men of the city, and special patriotic moving pictures will be shown. The children of all the schools in the city will march in a body to the theatre.

On Thursday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Dawson on 5th Avenue presented a very gay appearance. The occasion was a dance given by Mrs. Dawson to about sixty of her friends in aid of the Queen Mary Chapter I. O. D. E. Dancing was the order of the evening. Mr. Harvey and Miss Stevens provided the music and a very enjoyable time was spent by all. The proceeds are to help out a project which the I. O. D. E. have in hand. They have decided to complete the payment on the lots which they hold on 5th Ave., near McBride St. and thus be in a position to consider the building of a home for themselves at a future date. Fate has been kind to the ladies and by a fortunate stroke of business they have been enabled to wipe out all but a few hundred dollars of their indebtedness on these lots.

The tug Masset, which was docked at the drydock on Thursday, came off this morning after having repairs to her rudder and propeller and being cleaned and painted. The fishing boat Comodore is going on the dock today.
