CHARGED THAT LIQUOR BEING SOLD OPENLY

Alderman Kirkpatrick Brings Up Matter at City Council Meeting.

When the business of the City Council was completed last night Alderman Kirkpatrick spoke of the way in which the prohibition law was being carried out. Individuals in this city had voted for prohibition in order to protect themselves from the temptation to take liquor, but they could get it here now and said that they are worse off than ever. They allege that they can buy drink anywhere. It was being stated that this was the worst town on the coast. Liquor was being sold openly. She was told that anyone could get whisky by asking for it. Signs were up in the windows when there was a stock in.

Defends City.
The mayor said he knew liquor was being sold. People who read the signs of which Mrs. Kirkpatrick spoke would be doing their duty as citizens if they reported to the proper quarters. He attached no importance to the suggestion that this was the worst town. Statements such as this were easy to make. From the amount of business being done in the stores since prohibition came into force he felt assured that things were not as bad as they were. He did not hope to see the time when there would be no drink around. The police always came in for a good deal of censure. As chairman of the police commission he knew it was difficult to put a stop to selling. This talk about a worse city than other places, however, was so much piffle. The British born were not in a majority here and the ideals of the others were not the same as ours. For a new frontier city we were well off. Conditions were not as they ought to be but he was confident they were not as bad as they were said to be.

Alderman Kirkpatrick said that men knew where to go and she thought it a pity it should be so. Alderman Casey dryly remarked that the beer he got in Vancouver was better than that sold here.

BIG ATTRACTION AT THE WESTHOLME

Enid Bennett and Pearl White, the Two Stars, Prove Pleasing Performers in the Pictures

With Enid Bennett and Pearl White starring at the Westholme Theatre last evening, the patrons there had a great treat in the way of pictures.

In "The Marriage Ring," the Paramount feature, was to be seen a powerful and attractive story, which lost nothing in the telling. In this play Enid Bennett is as charming as ever, and she handles the role of the gambler's wife to perfection.

The first episode of the serial "Lightning Raider" starring Pearl White, was also an attraction which pleased the audience very greatly. Both pictures are to be repeated this evening.

REX BEACH'S STORY PROVES VERY POPULAR

Large Crowd Out to See "The Ne'er Do Well"—Repeated Tonight.

How the hero falls in love with a Spanish girl, Chiquita, how a married woman plots and counter plots for her own ends, and the outcome is shown in picture at the Empress tonight. It is the repeat run of Rex Beach's great story "The Ne'er Do Well," a marvellous story of love and romance.

Kathlyn Williams, the star in this great play, is a wonder and the cast is largely the same as that in "The Spoilers."

Like all Rex Beach plays this one proved very popular last night and there were many expressions of appreciation heard after the show was over. Doubtless the repeat tonight will be largely attended.

E. D. Johnson, city treasurer, returned from a trip south yesterday afternoon on the Princess Mary.

CLEANLINESS IS HEALTH

By the use of Gillett's Lye, house cleaning is made a pleasure instead of a drudgery. It softens the water and cleans thoroughly whether the dirt is visible or invisible. Destroys all bacteria and infectious germs, removes obstructions from drain pipes, closets, sinks, etc. Refrigerators are made delightfully fresh and clean by using one teaspoonful of Gillett's Lye dissolved in two gallons of water.

DANCE NEXT WEEK FOR SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL

No Charge for Harvey's Orchestra Or St. Andrew's Hall for This Occasion.

Harvey's orchestra in collaboration with the St. Andrew's Society and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Great War Veterans will give a dance on May 30 for the purpose of raising funds for the returned soldiers memorial. In speaking of it Mr. Harvey told a News representative that he had been paid for his services at most of the events during the winter and the St. Andrew's Society had been paid for the hall. Now the orchestra proposed to give its services and the hall would be donated free of cost in order that the funds might all go to the memorial.

It is expected that the dance will be a pretentious affair and that the attendance will be large.

TO ERECT ABBATOIR THIS NEIGHBORHOOD

George Frizzell Making Preparations to Purchase Beef on Hoof and Kill Here.

George Frizzell of this city is making preparations to purchase cattle from the Bulkley Valley and other interior points and will at once erect an abattoir here as well as stockyards. The cattle will be brought in on the hoof and slaughtered here.

This is the first attempt to make this a central market for cattle from the interior. In order that Prince Rupert may have the very best in meat, this step has been found necessary. It is a new local industry.
