EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS FELT ON ISLANDS

Spring Salmon Run Late at Queen Charlottes—Cannery Being Moved From Naden Harbor.

Masset, May 23.—An earthquake occurred at Graham Island on Sunday morning at 2:45, followed by a second shock at 3:15. Both were of long duration, but no damage was done.

The spring salmon run is late this year. Few of the trollers are making phenomenal catches. The boats are arriving on the grounds off Naden Harbor daily.

Several tug boats are engaged in towing logs and rafts from Buckley Bay, Port Clements and Sewell. One raft stranded on Masset bar, but the tow floated off during high water in an storm and was found by a boat from the Naden whaling station.

Nigel Sherwood and Jasper Amos, returned soldiers, returned to Masset after serving in the Canadian forces overseas for three years. Mr. Sherwood was accompanied by an English "war bride." Both were heartily greeted by their many old friends on Graham Island.

A force of men will remove the Naden Harbor cannery buildings from Virage Sound to the mouth of Woden river, preparatory to commencing operations during 1920. With a cannery, several sawmills in operation, and new wharves under construction, a busy year is expected.

Several parties are out along the west coast of Graham Island locating coal and oil, and prospecting for precious metals. With the mining work in progress at the south end of the island, and the discovery of a number of good prospects in various localities, the coming summer may bring many surprises to the uninitiated outsiders, who know little of the possibilities of the vast territory lying almost at the doors of Prince Rupert.

MACHINISTS AT FIRST BALL

Most Enjoyable Event at St. Andrew's Hall Friday Night Was Well Attended.

The St. Andrew's Hall was thronged with merry makers last Friday night at the first annual dance given by the Prince Rupert Lodge No. 267, Independent Association of Machinists. The committees were: Dave Ross, M. C.; Pete Overson, Leo McIntyre, A. Ellis, and R. T. J. Rose, cashiers; Pete Overson, Leo McIntyre, A. Ellis and George Rudderham, decoration; S. Steel, T. Hooper, W. Hoss, A. Storrie, J. Hogan, D. Storrings, and L. Thompson, refreshments. Mr. Rose was also chairman of the dance committee. It was one of the most enjoyable of its kind ever held in Prince Rupert. About one hundred couples were present and the machinists appeared in complete working uniform. Another novel feature that caused not a little comment was the novel way in which the moonlight waltzes were arranged, the light being made to represent a powerful headlight of a locomotive of the Grand Trunk type.

The refreshments were the very best obtainable, ice cream and punch being placed at the disposal of the dancers. Harvey's orchestra provided excellent music.

A cake was donated by Mrs. S. B. Cox for raffle, from which the sum of $17.50 was realized towards the funds of the brass band. Joe Kern was the lucky winner of the cake and to show his appreciation of the band he put the cake up for auction sale and bought it in at $4.

At the close of the evening Fred Shaw of the Federated Labor party, addressed the gathering. He spoke of the excellent way in which the machinists conducted their first annual ball, and of the fine catering. When father time moved the hands of the clock around to close on day-break the dancers began to wend their way homewards.
