"Fruit-a-tives" Quickly Relieved This Chronic Trouble

589 CASGRAIN STREET, MONTREAL.
"In my opinion, no other medicine is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-tives'."

I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis; with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and pain in the back.

I was induced to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and now for six months I have been entirely well". A. ROSENBERG.

SCHOOL PUPILS AT PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION

Great Gathering of Juveniles at Westholme Theatre Under Auspices of Daughters of the Empire.

The Westholme Theatre was none too large to hold the children that assembled there Friday afternoon for a patriotic demonstration under the auspices of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire. It was a great crowd of young humanity, each unit absorbing impressions, and the impressions should have a good effect.

Mrs. McLennan presided and with her on the platform were the regents of the local chapters, the chairman of the school board, the speakers and standard bearers with their flags.

Short addresses were given by L. W. Patmore, chairman of the school board, Rev. Dr. Grant, Rev. Canon Rix, Rev. Father McGrath, and Rev. W. W. Wright. Just as the last was speaking Lieut.-Col. Peck arrived and gave a short address. There was also singing of patriotic songs and Mrs. Jarvis McLeod sang alone and was given a hearty encore.

Colonel Peck spoke of the grim and ghastly struggle through which they had passed and at the conclusion of which right had prevailed. It showed that no matter how well organized a nation could not win unless it had behind it the principle of right. He told of the wonderful patriotism of France that inflamed the whole population, young and old, and of the wonderful battler, "France Must Live and Conquer." He hoped that if ever this country was put to the test she would exemplify her patriotism in the same way. L. W. Patmore who was the first speaker mentioned the value of building up a national sentiment. In the United States the young people were taught to venerate the flag. It was this spirit that drove the hyphenate out of the country on the outbreak of war, and made it possible for her to meet the issue squarely. The greatest duty the teacher had was to instil in the pupils a love of country.

The Clergy.
Dr. Grant spoke of the immense size of the empire and of its great population, but her greatness consisted not in size or population but in the innate traits of character. The cross in the flag stood for sacrifice and service. It was this spirit which animated their two school fellows who lost their lives in the service of their country. Frank Holland and Jack Dowling. History taught us that the flag stood for service to country and service to God. Canon Rix gave an interesting talk on the different flags of the empire illustrating the more important ones.

Father McGrath spoke of this Empire Day being a red letter day in the history of Prince Rupert. He commended the activity of the Daughters of the Empire in bringing out the children beneath the flag.

Rev. W. W. Wright spoke of the pride they all felt in their native land and of the desirability of standing by the old flag. He paid a tribute to the women of France who were worthy of emulation. He also spoke appreciatively of the Prince Rupert teaching staff.

FINE TROUT TAKEN

Party Returned From Khtada Lakes With Eight-Pounders; Other Parties Returned.

There was a rumor around town yesterday that a party of anglers consisting of W. E. Wilfiscroft, F. Gilhuly and Harry Lipsett, had been to Khtada lakes and had captured several whales, but on inquiry it was found that one of them had hooked "a whale of a trout" and brought it home. Curiously enough on this occasion the big ones did not all get away. Several of the rainbows captured tipping the scales at something like eight pounds. About twenty fish were taken.

Several other parties that were going up in launches were driven back by the bad weather.
