One Big Union Plan at Work.

Unless some little difference is settled between two parties in Winnipeg Prince Rupert must suffer. That is the dictum of the One Big Union. It is the principle which is to be followed in future under the plan of the new organization. The union is not really organized but the methods are already in vogue.

In Edmonton the strike was brought on by a vote of 1,600 Thursdays and Saturdays at 8 p. Sundays 10 p. m. men in a city, the population of which is, say 70,000. That is a n. Sundays at 7:30 p. m. very small proportion. It is possible that a few of the others favored the strike but the vast majority undoubtedly were opposed to it. It is one of the cases where the minority imposed their will on the majority. The minority were organized, whereas the majority were not.

In Prince Rupert, judging from opinions heard on the street, the vast majority of the people are opposed to a strike. A few the vast majority of the people are opposed to a strike. A few TAKE NOTICE that application has been people will vote and decide whether to tie the city up or not. Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner in fee un-They will stop all business, interfere with the food supply and the all the commodities of life, and the disorganized mass that does not approve will stand helpless by and watch all their boasted of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Prince Rupert, more liberties being taken away by a few.

Prince Rupert has been On Strike for Years.

Insofar as any activity is concerned Prince Rupert has been on strike for years past. She has been industrially dead and it a daily newspaper), and your attention will not matter much if the corpse stays dead for another year Act" with amendments, and to the followor not. There were signs of coming to life, a slight stirring of ing. the dry bones, but let her lie. Who cares? Nip the little activity in the bud. Club the reviving corpse and let it rot by the wayside. It is but a small one and perhaps will be better out of the way.

Strike is a Joke. In a Place This Size.

A strike in Prince Rupert is a joke. Here are a few hundred people, a community, isolated and struggling for a place in the sun. The people are trying to hew streets out of the rock and muskeg, to lay the foundations for a city, to build schools at which to educate their children, to slowly develop until they may be of some influence on the continent. Then a few of the few hundreds call a halt. They object to interfering with the course of nature. Back to the clam bed is their cry. Shut things down. Strike.

Suitable Suggestion For the Occasion.

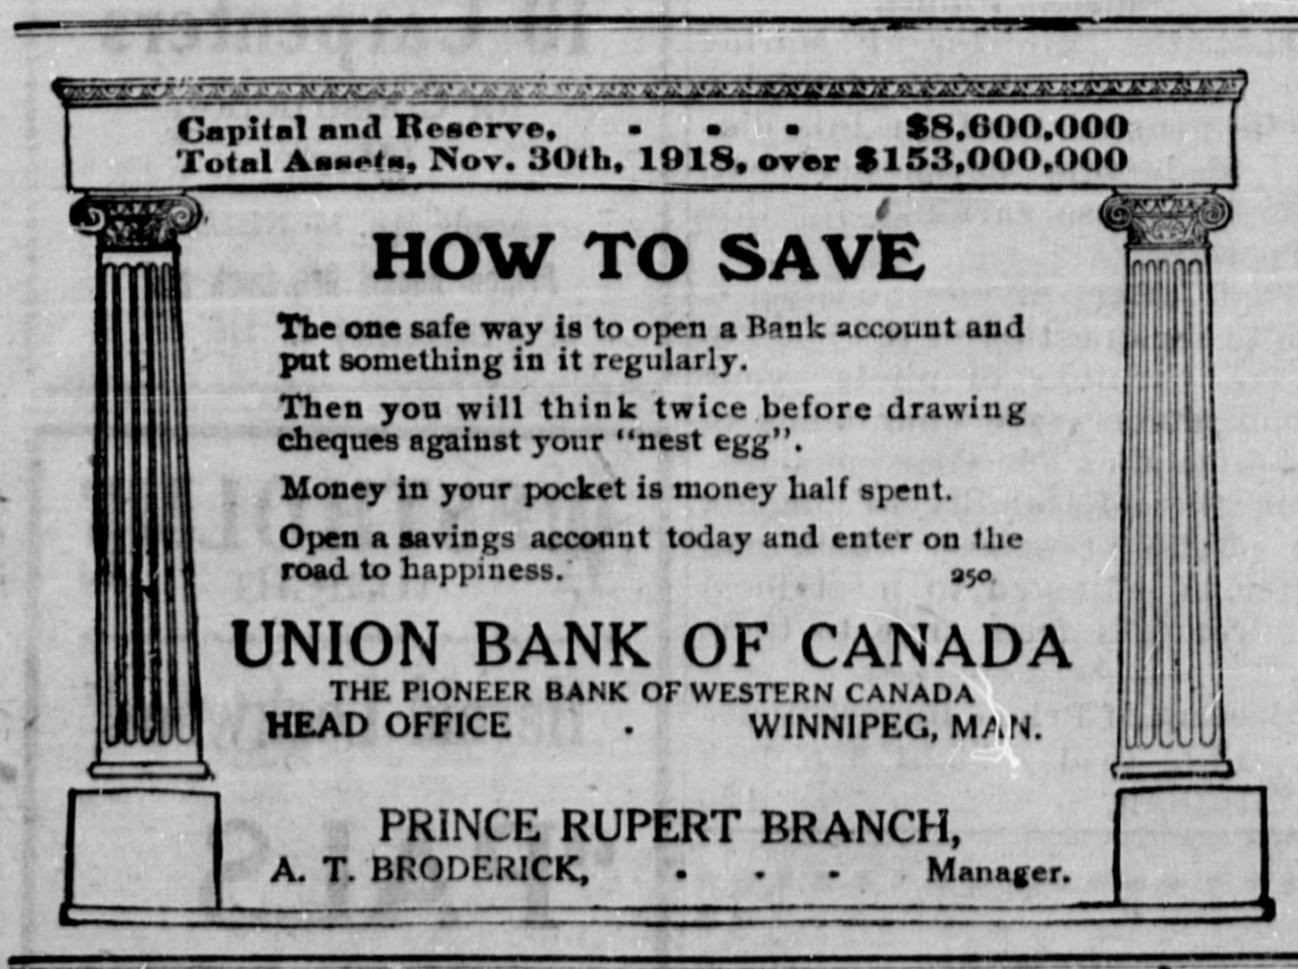

Here is a suggestion to the strikers who seem bent on killing the town. Send Mullen and his shipbuilding crowd back to same time I shall effect registration in Pittsburg or wherever they happen to come from, set the drydock adrift, close down the cold storage plant and the mill for all time, lands in the name of Thomas McManamon destroy the few little temporary wharves that have been built proceedings to establish your claim, if here and then take a few siwash canoes and go and live on one any, to the said lands, or to-prevent such of the islands.

Possibly the next generation will have sense enough to form an anti-strike league which will be composed of three fourths of the men and women of the community. These will pledge themselves to look upon any striker as a scab that must be removed Notice of Intention to Apply to purchase from the rest of the body politic and to treat him accordingly. They will be perfectly organized like the armies that fought against the Huns. They will sit as judges on the merits of any dispute between capital and the Big Union and if either treats the other unfairly, they will adopt the old method our fathers used when the boy disgraced himself.

Workingman Should

Get Share of Good Things.

The average wage earner has been badly used in days gone more or less, following shore line to point the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliaby. There is no denying that. There was no alternative for him of commencement and containing 80 acres but to strike. It was his only weapon. Now the strike bug has become so virulent that it deserves to be scotched. To go on Dated 31 March, 1919. strike because there is a quarrei 1,500 miles away is unwarrantable. To leave work without conferring with the employers as was done here recently is also unreasonable. For employers to pay wages that are not high enough to keep a family decently is mg District of Prince Rupert, and situate unwarrantable. There must be give and take, but to strike just for the sake of upsetting things generally is criminal.
