Strike May Come At Any Time.

The union men of the city, numbering 450 persons, mostly men, have given authority to the Trades and Labor Council to call a strike at any time if they think it necessary. That it will be thought necessary sooner or later, if the strike continues in other cities, goes without saying. Prince Rupert people, in face of Saturday's vote should prepare for a strike, for it is very likely to come. It has been precipitated earlier than most of the labor leaders wished, for the One Big Union which was to have been the great weapon of offense, has not yet been organized. Similar methods are being adopted now, however, to those which would be under the Big Union.

In other cities strong citizens' committees are being formed for the purpose of maintaining law and order. In Winnipeg there is a committee of one thousand and in Vancouver and Victoria similar committees are being formed.

The necessity of the formation of such committees is found in the seditious utterances of some of the strikers and labor leaders. In some cases the men are being incited to lawlessness by suggestion and even in this town around the places where men congregate, threats are openly expressed and suggestions of taking things by violence are muttered. In the face of such a condition a complete organization of the law-abiding section of the community is necessary.

In Winnipeg there has been good order, but even there the bulletin issued by the strikers has suggested that if the men are hungry there is plenty of food in the houses of the rich at Fort Rouge and men are foolish to go hungry when there is plenty to be obtained.

Revolutionary Movement Is Behind Strike.

Senator Robertson was right when he said that there was a revolutionary movement behind it all. This does not mean that all the union officials are revolutionaries nor perhaps any of them. Men are being used these days by an inner clique who make no effort to conceal their purpose of trying to upset the present form of government and of establishing a soviet. Of this soviet the One Big Union was to be the basis. The union was to be organized in such a way that when the time came it could take to itself the reins of government and rule.

Owing to the strike at Winnipeg the movement was precipitated earlier than was expected. It has gone off at half cock and is not meeting with any great success. If a settlement is made now it will be with the purpose of gathering the forces for another and greater onslaught. It does not, at the time of writing, look as if there would be a settlement possibly for some time to come.

Winnipeg Is Not Making Headway.

In Winnipeg, according to reports, the strike is not making much headway. The unions took control during the first few days and everything was paralyzed because the citizens were wholly unprepared, and did not understand the motive. After a few days they shook off their lethargy and organized and the result is that the public utilities are being operated, food is being distributed, and if there is distress it is among the strikers more than anyone else.

The One Big Union leaders deluded their followers into the idea that a strike could be won in a few days if everything was tied up. That is proved to be incorrect. Winnipeg was tied up, but it broke loose and the outlook for the success of the strike is poorer than it was three weeks ago. The non-strikers say that they can put up with inconvenience just as long as can the strikers and perhaps longer. Also they are determined to preserve law and order. Happily there are no saloons to craze the brains of the people and excite them and the result is that the struggle continues quietly but determinedly, and none are more determined than the citizens who have organized to prevent any upsetting of the constitutional authority.

We take special pride in carrying in stock for this purpose some very fine and perfect diamonds.

We guarantee the quality and good value of these rings as we have made special selection of the stones before the last raise in price of diamonds.

We recommend one at $75.00 in particular as being quite desirable.
