Passing of Dr. Monroe

graduated in medicine from McGill University at Montreal, later taking up post-graduate work at Chicago and Vienna.

Coming to British Columbia in 1896, Dr. Monroe first practised at Kamloops before coming to Vancouver in 1901 when he practised in partnership with Drs. Brydone-Jack and Cumming.

He was later surgeon to the Vancouver General Hospital and the Great Northern Railway. Almost immediately after the outbreak of war, he enlisted for military medical service.

In 1900, Dr. Monroe was married to Miss Edith McCrossan of Vancouver. He was a Scottish Rite Mason and belonged to the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Societies. He was a member of the Vancouver, Jericho Country and British Columbia Golf Clubs. He was a Liberal and a Presbyterian and horticulture was his hobby.

The late Dr. Monroe was a cousin of Alec S. Monroe, well known chief engineer on Canadian National Steamships.

Miss Megan Morris ,daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from Vancouver where she has been spending the past two or three months.
