

TO-DAY

In medicines, as in every other necessity, the public is satisfied with nothing but the best! This explains the ever-increasing demand for Zam-Buk. Not only is this great balm the best household remedy to-day, but it is also the most economical.

Zam-Buk's superiority is due to the fact that it is all medicine, containing none of the coarse animal fats or harsh mineral drugs found in ordinary ointments. Again, the medicinal properties are so highly concentrated that they contain the maximum amount of healing, soothing and antiseptic power, so that a little of this balm goes a long way.

Another reason why Zam-Buk is most economical. It will keep indefinitely and retain to the last its strength and purity. Best for skin diseases and injuries, blood-poisoning and piles. All dealers, 50c. box.

LIEUT. YOUNG APPEARS HERE IN THE COURT

Judge Congratulated by Bar Association on Safe Return of His Son.

At the opening of court yesterday afternoon before Judge Young his son, Lieut. Alex. Young, R.N., took a seat at the barrister's table and his appearance there was the occasion for a little ceremony, this being his first appearance in court here since he was called to the bar in Victoria when home on leave some months ago. As suggested by one of the barristers afterwards this was his first appearance before his father when holding this kind of a court.

W. E. Fisher, president of the Bar Association, rising said: "I wish to congratulate you on the return of your son from the front and also to congratulate him on the good work he has done while over there. It is very gratifying these days to see the return of these boys who left us and I think for the parents who have the boys return, it is a matter of great moment to them to have them back with them again.

Citizens Proud.
Mr. Manson—"I only want to add my word to what Mr. Fisher has said. Alex. Young was only a boy when he left and he went and gave the very best account of himself that any man could give. He was fortunate in more ways than one. He was fortunate first of all that he saw some of the most brilliant service that any man was permitted to see who served either in the army or in the navy. He was fortunate in that he was spared to return from that brilliant incident of the navy at Zeebrugge and it goes without saying that not only are the citizens of Prince Rupert proud of him as one of their boys, but I know the congratulations of every citizen go out to you as a father and to him as a son for the account that he has given of himself as a young Canadian."

Reminiscences.
Mr. Fulton—"I can only add my congratulations to your honor upon the return of your brilliant boy, whom we all liked so well and also congratulate Alex upon the escape from the office drudgery which is entailed in a five-year articles of which he still had a certain portion to look forward to when he left. I will remember the expression that used to flit over his countenance when he saw a big pile of papers in the filing basket when he came to work. All the terrors of war are nothing in comparison with the feeling of satisfaction (?) in escaping those files. We are immensely glad to see him back again whole and hearty."

Judge's Reply.
...Judge Young—"I am sure it places me in a somewhat embarrassing position to have these matters stated more particularly when on the bench, but I appreciate the sentiments you have expressed. If you are glad to see him back I am sure several in our house are equally glad to see him. We are greatly to be congratulated on having him back and whatever he has done over there it is nothing but a satisfaction to me to know that he passed through these various engagements and came back safely. I thank you very much for your congratulations to us."

I.O.D.E. CINDERELLA AT ST. ANDREW'S HALL ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The cinderella dances given under the auspices of the Adair Carss Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, Mrs. E. G. Wright, convenor, in St. Andrew's Hall last night was a most enjoyable affair. There was a large and select attendance and everyone seemed to be out for a good time.

This was one of a series given under the auspices of the chapter during the season and the efforts of the ladies was much appreciated. Mrs. C. Kemp, Mrs. Gilhuly and Mrs. George Kerr were at the door; Mrs. S. V. Cox had charge of the punch bowl and Howard Steen was floor manager.

FARM LOANS for SOLDIERS

Agricultural Training For Soldier Settlers

A SOLDIER is entitled to the benefits of the Soldier Settlement Act if he can satisfy the Agricultural Qualification Committee in his district that—

- (a) He has performed the required military service;
- (b) He is sincere in his intention to make farming his permanent occupation;
- (c) He is physically capable and is fitted in general to make a success of the farming business.

If he is otherwise qualified, but has not had sufficient practical agricultural experience, the Committee may recommend that he be given agricultural training. A generous scale of allowances for soldiers in training has been adopted.

Training Centres For Soldier Settlers

The applicant who is recommended for instruction in agriculture may first be sent to a Training Centre, specially operated for the purpose, where he will learn, by practical experience, how to handle and feed horses and other live stock; milking; the operation of farm machinery, ploughing, etc.; general farm building work; farm blacksmithing; the different kinds of soil and rotation of crops; the selection and judging of live stock and the marketing of farm products. Short lectures on the business management of a farm will be given.

With A Selected Farmer

After the course at the Training Centre, the length of which depends on the progress of the individual but will not exceed three months, the man is placed with a carefully selected farmer in the district in which he intends to settle, to complete his training. During this period (not exceeding one year), the soldier is visited from time to time by representatives of the Soldier Settlement Board, who check his progress and recommend when he is considered qualified to take up a farm of his own.

It will be evident that by this system of preliminary training the soldier settler will gain a thorough practical knowledge of farming without expense; will learn to appreciate the responsibility involved in the venture, and at the same time gain a clear conception of just what farm life means.

On His Own Farm

When a settler is deemed qualified by the Agricultural Qualification Committee, the Board will assist him to become established on a farm of his own, and will, through its Agricultural Advisers, continue to co-operate with him in his work, thereby ensuring his success and consequent ability to discharge his obligations and become permanently established.

Fair To Both

The procedure outlined not only gives the soldier an opportunity of first becoming familiar with his environment and of acquiring the experience requisite to success, but ensures adding to the nation's fundamental industry only competent and satisfied producers.

Detailed information regarding the provisions of the Soldier Settlement Act and further particulars regarding agricultural training may be obtained from the Provincial Superintendent,
