Men Decide Against Strike.

The local unions last night voted against a general strike in the city at the present time. There was a long discussion in which the pros and cons of the subject were recounted. Naturally at a time like this there is a good deal of feeling and sentiment is a large factor, especially in influencing those who wish to enter the fray.

There is a conciliatory spirit abroad among a large number of the labor men, who realize that nothing is to be gained by striking, but that much is to be lost, both on the part of employers and employed. There is no local quarrel, except in some minor affair between a few men employed at the shipyard slips and J. R. Morgan & Co. The whole movement here is a sympathetic one.

Naturally with so much unrest in the country and with news coming every day from various points that the strike bug has invaded new territory, the local situation becomes tense. Wise counsels have prevailed so far, however, and it is generally hoped that they will continue.

Effect of Strike
On the Community.

Only a week ago everyone here was lighthearted and all went about their work with all the appearance of enjoyment. Today as a result of the troubles many faces are drawn and people go about suspicious of each other, depressed, serious and with a chip on the shoulder. The spirit of contention is rife, and yet there is no quarrel here.

The spirit of comradeship is shown in this sympathetic strike which possibly will eventually make for good government. Men who have never seen each other are willing to go on strike in order to support them. A brotherly spirit is being cultivated and while just now many are of opinion that it is not wisely used, it is different from anything that has ever been heard of in the past. Possibly the spirit of the war is entering into the people.

Ready to Strike Against Profiteering.

It is understood that the Trades and Labor Council decided last night that they were ready to strike against any cases of profiteering in the city. While we doubt if striking would be effective to punish such an act, we are thoroughly in sympathy with the intention. There is no reason why there should be profiteering at any time. That is what has done more than anything else to rouse the workmen of the country who feel that they are being exploited to provide these excess profits. There is no reason why the Government should not deal with the question and make profiteering impossible. It is not a thing that it is impossible to remedy. The Daily News has always stood for the abolition of profiteering. Again and again opinions have been expressed along that line and that is still our attitude.

Diamond
Engagement
Rings

We take special pride in carrying in stock for this purpose some very fine and perfect diamonds.

We guarantee the quality and good value of these rings as we have made special selection of the stones before the last raise in price of diamonds.

We recommend one at $75.00 in particular as being quite desirable.
