Mrs. Siwell
Says
Use Water

Mrs. Thos. Siwell says that it took her a long time to learn to use enough water in diluting Pacific Milk for cooking. She mentions it to us because she thinks others might be using too great a proportion of milk.

In all recipes calling for milk she uses equal parts of Pacific Milk and water—sometimes a little more water and less than half milk.

This is quite the correct way and we give it mention in case you use more than necessary.

COMPEL BARS TO CLOSE AT 12

City Council to Be Asked to Pass
Bylaw in Regard to Hours of Vendors.

"That the City Council be asked to compel the closing of all bars and poolrooms between the hours of 12 midnight and 6 a.m." was a resolution passed by the police commission at its meeting yesterday.

There are no cabarets in town (officially) so no restrictions could be placed on them, but if there are such places and drinks are sold there it is proposed to have them close at midnight instead of continuing on until all hours of the morning.

The question of pianos playing on Sundays in the bars was mentioned but it was decided that if people liked that kind of music it was not for the commission to interfere. Many people had no other place to go and if they passed restrictions as to hours that would be sufficient.

TALE OF THE VELD'T AT THE WESTHOLME

Clara Kimball Young is the Star
In An Entrancing Story of The Wide Spaces.

"The Claw," a remarkable story of the South African veldt, with Clara Kimball Young in the leading role, is the feature at the Westholme Theatre this evening. This play is founded upon Cynthia Stockley's famous novel of the Dark Continent. It is a story of the great outdoors in the big game hunter's paradise. Full of little touches true to human nature, one particularly feminine trait is seen when after shooting a hyena the heroine faints.

The army major, hearing the shot, rides up. When the lady comes out of her faint the major's back is turned, but only after she has reached for her hand mirror and assured herself that her hair is straight, is she ready to greet him. There is also a splendid Christie comedy and special music by the Westholme orchestra.

DOUBLE ATTRACTION AT THE EMPRESS

Vaudeville and Pictures at Popular Theatre Tonight and Tomorrow.

A splendid combination of vaudeville and pictures is to be given at the Empress Theatre this evening. Ellis and McCullough with Olive West will supply that part of the program which is the more unusual here while the pictures are somewhat above the average also. "To the Highest Bidder," the play is named, in which there is the story of a young girl who sells herself at public auction to save her ancestral acres for her younger brother. The fight which the girl puts up for her inheritance is well worth seeing, and the play is distinctly educational.

Then there is an all-star cast in a merry comedy entitled "Stenographic Troubles." Some of the artists in this laughable farce are Anita Stewart, Clara Kimball Young, Norma Talmadge, Flora Finch and John Bunny, which is a sufficient guarantee of its excellence.

GAMBLING DISCUSSED

No Professionals Will Be Tolerated in the City is Decision.

The question of gambling was discussed at length yesterday by the police commissioners, but no change was made in the general plan of campaign. It was emphasized that no professional gambling would be tolerated either in the clubs or anywhere else, but beyond that the commissioners refused to commit themselves.

Some rather humorous references were made to the clubs and other places where card playing is carried on and some comparisons were made which were highly interesting.

FARM LOANS for SOLDIERS

Agricultural Training For Soldier Settlers

A SOLDIER is entitled to the benefits of the Soldier Settlement Act if he can satisfy the Agricultural Qualification Committee in his district that—

- He has performed the required military service;
- He is sincere in his intention to make farming his permanent occupation;
- He is physically capable and is fitted in general to make a success of the farming business.

If he is otherwise qualified, but has not had sufficient practical agricultural experience, the Committee may recommend that he be given agricultural training. A generous scale of allowances for soldiers in training has been adopted.

Training Centres For Soldier Settlers

The applicant who is recommended for instruction in agriculture may first be sent to a Training Centre, specially operated for the purpose, where he will learn, by practical experience, how to handle and feed horses and other live stock; milking; the operation of farm machinery, ploughing, etc.; general farm building work; farm blacksmithing; the different kinds of soil and rotation of crops; the selection and judging of live stock and the marketing of farm products. Short lectures on the business management of a farm will be given.

With A Selected Farmer

After the course at the Training Centre, the length of which depends on the progress of the individual but will not exceed three months, the man is placed with a carefully selected farmer in the district in which he intends to settle, to complete his training. During this period (not exceeding one year), the soldier is visited from time to time by representatives of the Soldier Settlement Board, who check his progress and recommend when he is considered qualified to take up a farm of his own.

It will be evident that by this system of preliminary training the soldier settler will gain a thorough practical knowledge of farming without expense; will learn to appreciate the responsibility involved in the venture, and at the same time gain a clear conception of just what farm life means.

On His Own Farm

When a settler is deemed qualified by the Agricultural Qualification Committee, the Board will assist him to become established on a farm of his own, and will, through its Agricultural Advisers, continue to co-operate with him in his work, thereby ensuring his success and consequent ability to discharge his obligations and become permanently established.

Fair To Both

The procedure outlined not only gives the soldier an opportunity of first becoming familiar with his environment and of acquiring the experience requisite to success, but ensures adding to the nation's fundamental industry only competent and satisfied producers.

Detailed information regarding the provisions of the Soldier Settlement Act and further particulars regarding agricultural training may be obtained from the Provincial Superintendent,
