WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES HERE

Amateur Production Will be Put On Next Week By Local Artists.

Good progress is being made by the local amateur theatrical artists on the three-act comedy farce "What Happened to Jones." It is described by those who have read the play and seen the rehearsals as a scream from start to finish.

The theme of the play is based on a case of mistaken identity. Jones as the Bishop of Ballaret has an encounter with wild Indians and there are all sorts of funny combinations and curious situations. The play is to be put on next week at the Westholme Theatre at popular prices.

Judging from the progress that has already been made, the comedy will be the best thing that has ever been staged here. Mr. Pudney, who is training the caste is a splendid actor and good manager and for that reason big things are expected.

The performers are Mrs. Frank Bowness, Miss Ruby Taylor, Miss McLeod, Miss Edmunds, Miss Mills, W. E. Fisher, C. C. Perry, E. R. Tabrum, Geo. Logan, Rip. Boyd, H. Helgstrom, Geo. Durham and J. S. Pudney.

Keep Baby's Woollens Soft and Sweet

Even little garments are dear now—you must make them last, and of course you want them always soft and comfy for the important wee person.

The little woollens need never shrink a thread—never stiffen or grow thick—not after repeated washings if you cleanse them in the pure, creamy Lux lather. It's so simple to whip the delicate Lux flakes into a rich suds—so simple to squeeze the suds through the little garments—then take them out absolutely sweet and clean and fresh.

Lux harms nothing that pure water may touch.
