Strike Vote to Be Taken Tomorrow.

A strike vote is to be taken tomorrow by the organized workers of this city. Everyone is interested in the result, but none so much as the union men themselves. They have more at stake than anyone else for when the work stops the income stops.

To tie up the city absolutely tight would cause some inconvenience to everyone. Some of the luxuries of life would be cut off very soon, but already a good many of them are removed. The mails from the south are stopped and that is one of the luxuries. Fresh fruit and vegetables will soon be all used up, but there is plenty of good food, good enough for anybody for the next month or two. By that time it is possible that everything will be settled.

There are a good many people who still think that it would be a good thing to tie everything up with a general strike and it might not be a bad idea to give it a trial. A month of inactivity would not hurt anyone much just now during the good weather and it would perhaps be a satisfaction to those who are so keen for the strike. The worst feature would be that there may be some children who would suffer, the youngsters who do not understand what it is all about, but who are always the first to feel the pinch. The News is strong for a general strike if that will clear the air and give us a chance to get back to work after it is over. In the meantime trout fishing is said to be good.

Public Health Business of Nation.

For many years the trend of our activities along health lines has been for the governments and municipalities to relegate their responsibilities to various organizations, and merely assist them by charitable grants, thereby treating the most important features of health work as of an eleemosynary character, says "Conservation of Life."

In this matter these authorities have been wrong, both in principle and in action, for in no one particular can the health of a citizen of Canada be considered as an act of charity.

The nation and the body corporate have a duty to perform towards each citizen, be he rich or poor, in so far as his or her health is concerned and they cannot avoid the responsibility by simply giving financial assistance to the many excellent associations and institutions which have sprung up over the length and breadth of the country and are now carried on by an army of devoted and philanthropic citizens. If government and municipal authorities had but risen to their high responsibilities in regard to health, in a manner equal to those organizations now voluntarily working in such spheres as child welfare, motherhood, mental defectives, and social welfare, they would simply have been discharging what is clearly their duty and for which they are responsible. They cannot avoid or shirk what are clearly health problems, in the manner they have in the past, and public opinion must be so directed to claim from the state and the municipal authorities public action in place of charitable assistance. We have today a better understanding of what the word health means, and, what is more, we realize, better than we ever did, that each citizen, even the poorest and the youngest amongst us, has the right to claim from these authorities that preservation of health should be the first concern of the state.

SYNOPSIS OF

LAND ACT AMENDMENT

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only. Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emption is abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Where a pre-emptor in occupation not less than 3 years, and has made proportionate improvements, he may, because of ill-health or other cause, be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $100 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing and industrial purposes, areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT. The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT. Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible, as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may apply for their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown land in the locality may be made. Those allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is limited to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after this date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.

For information apply to any Provincial Government Agent or to G. R. NADEN, Deputy Minister of Lands, Victoria, B. C.
