THREE KILLED INDIANAPOLIS AUTO RACES

Howdy Wilcox Wins 500 Mile Event—Driver and Mechanician Burned to Crisp.

(Special by G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Indianapolis, June 6.—Driving magnificently from start to finish, Howdy Wilcox, piloting a Peugeot car, dashed home a winner in the Indianapolis 500 mile race on Saturday. Wilcox was hard pressed in the early part of the race but before the finish was well in advance of all his competitors.

Two Burned to Crisp.

Three men were killed and one seriously injured in the Liberty Sweepstakes here. Louis Lecocq and his mechanic, Banrini, driving a Roamer Special, were burned to a crisp when their car turned over and caught fire. The men were pinned under the car and were dead when it was lifted.

Arthur Thurman of Washington, driver of a Thurman Special, was instantly killed when his car turned turtle in the back stretch. His mechanic had his skull crushed and lies at the point of death in the hospital. Thurman's young wife was in the grandstand when she learned of her husband's death. She collapsed and was hurried to Indianapolis.

VAUDEVILLE IS BIG ATTRACTION

Company From the South Gives Enjoyable Hour at Empress Theatre.

There was a full house at the Empress Theatre last night to see the vaudeville and pictures, but especially the vaudeville. An hour of fun, music and dancing was given by Eddie Ellis, the darkie humorist, Pat McCullough, the foot artist, Olive West, the singing and dancing soubrette, and a fourth artist who helped to keep everything moving. The whole program was interspersed with lively jokes and catches and stage play that adds to the merriment.

McCullough ranks among the best dancers on the continent. He gives several good exhibitions and also sings. Eddie Ellis is funny throughout. His makeup alone is worth seeing. Olive West, frivolous, fanciful and musical, makes a strong appeal with the boys, while the other lady dances a little, plays a little and sings in the choruses and does it all gracefully and daintily.

Of the pictures it is enough to say that they are very good. There are some very beautiful scenes in "To the Highest Bidder," and beautiful Alice Joyce makes a delightful star.

"Stenographic Troubles" is a comedy in which John Bunny is the central figure, but in which a number of famous screen stars play parts. It is rich.

The program is being repeated tonight.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG IN STORY OF VELDT

Famous Star in New Role at the Westholme Theatre Tonight.

"The Claw," a strong and remarkable story of the South African Veldt, is to be screened at the Westholme Theatre tonight again. This play features Clara Kimball Young, who is a general favorite always, and was none the less so last night.

Full houses crowded to see her in this stirring tale of South Africa. It is a picture full of action, replete with actual scenes of the great out-doors. The versatile star has a strenuous time throughout this film. A good shot with a rifle and an expert horsewoman, the wide veldt offers her great chances for sport, and of their kind, these pictures are worthy of a high place.

The play itself is a fine one, and as well there is a first class Christie Comedy, one of the very latest to be released, which is well worth seeing.

FARM LOANS for SOLDIERS

Agricultural Training For Soldier Settlers

A SOLDIER is entitled to the benefits of the Soldier Settlement Act if he can satisfy the Agricultural Qualification Committee in his district that—

- He has performed the required military service;
- He is sincere in his intention to make farming his permanent occupation;
- He is physically capable and is fitted in general to make a success of the farming business.

If he is otherwise qualified, but has not had sufficient practical agricultural experience, the Committee may recommend that he be given agricultural training. A generous scale of allowances for soldiers in training has been adopted.

Training Centres For Soldier Settlers

The applicant who is recommended for instruction in agriculture may first be sent to a Training Centre, specially operated for the purpose, where he will learn, by practical experience, how to handle and feed horses and other live stock; milking; the operation of farm machinery, ploughing, etc.; general farm building work; farm blacksmithing; the different kinds of soil and rotation of crops; the selection and judging of live stock and the marketing of farm products. Short lectures on the business management of a farm will be given.

With A Selected Farmer

After the course at the Training Centre, the length of which depends on the progress of the individual but will not exceed three months, the man is placed with a carefully selected farmer in the district in which he intends to settle, to complete his training. During this period (not exceeding one year), the soldier is visited from time to time by representatives of the Soldier Settlement Board, who check his progress and recommend when he is considered qualified to take up a farm of his own.

It will be evident that by this system of preliminary training the soldier settler will gain a thorough practical knowledge of farming without expense; will learn to appreciate the responsibility involved in the venture, and at the same time gain a clear conception of just what farm life means.

On His Own Farm

When a settler is deemed qualified by the Agricultural Qualification Committee, the Board will assist him to become established on a farm of his own, and will, through its Agricultural Advisers, continue to co-operate with him in his work, thereby ensuring his success and consequent ability to discharge his obligations and become permanently established.

Fair To Both

The procedure outlined not only gives the soldier an opportunity of first becoming familiar with his environment and of acquiring the experience requisite to success, but ensures adding to the nation's fundamental industry only competent and satisfied producers.

Detailed information regarding the provisions of the Soldier Settlement Act and further particulars regarding agricultural training may be obtained from the Provincial Superintendent,
