The General Strike In Prince Rupert.

DAILY EDITION.

Although it has affected only the waterfront practically so far, a so-called general strike exists in the city. This strike is not for any particular disability under which the strikers have labored. They have not requested-and been refused-more money. They have not either asker for-and been refusedshorter hours. Neither is the high cost of living-which the whole community suffers from-given as the reason. The organized wage earners who are on strike have no dispute-no expressed grievance with local conditions. Yet they are on strike. When asked why, those who have a reason have said they are out for the principle of collective bargaining, in sympathy with the metal workers of Winnipeg. While it is good to have a reason, still no striker can truthfully state that the strike in Prince Rupert is going to hasten a settlement in Winnipeg; neither would staying at work in Prince Rupert have prolonged the strike in Winnipeg. All it has done for the strikers here is to decrease their spending capacity by just as much as the wages they have not earned.

In the Interests of Three-fourths of the People.

Three days after the strike started in Winnipeg, The Winni- 9th day of December, 1918, of ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of peg Citizen appeared—a publication "not issued on behalf of the land and premises situate, lying and being workers, nor on behalf of the employers, nor in opposition to in the City of Prince Rupert, more pareither of them as such, but simply and solely in the interests of six (66), Block twelve (12), Section Two Council last evening was to the the hundred and fifty thousand or more non-participants in the issues which served as the cause of the strike, issued only on behalf of the great mass of the public which is suffering from Twenty-nine (29, Section eight (8) (Map be of a permanent character. the strike's effects." More than three-quarters of the workers do not belong to any union, so that the "Citizen" represents the of the tax purchaser within 35 days from that all the work on roadways, he date of the service of this notice majority of the community. And right on the ground, it is able (which may be effected by publication in) sewers and waterworks be brought to get at the facts which form the reason for the sympathetic strike in Prince Rupert.

Principle of Collective Bargaining Never Questioned.

"The Citizen" tells the story of the beginning of the strike as follows: "In the month of April of this year trades union officials presented employers of the metal trades with proposed new schedules of hours and wages demanded by the metal trades workers for the ensuing year.

"The metal trades employers immediately took up these schedules with shop committees of their own employees--committees nominated by the workers themselves in each respective shop, thus recognizing the principle of collective bargaining on the part of their employes. In at least one case the workmen negotiated an agreement satisfactory to themseives, and in other cases the committee process was still under way when the Metal or pora stephens. Trades Council, a combination of unions, including several not affected by the three large ironworks in the least, asserted itself and insisted on being recognized as the official negotiating body you were the registered and assessed for all metal trades workers. The three employers insisted on owner of the lots opposite your respective ing outfit and stock for the newlydealing with their own men direct, declining to deal with organizations other than their own employes. Having declined to recog- pursuance of such application and issue nize an extraneous body, preferring to deal with their own men, the Trades and Labor Council leaders distorted the non-recogni- unless you take and prosecute the proper for a location. tion of the Metal Trades Council into a non-recognition of the principle of collective bargaining. Collective bargaining being a proposed action on my part.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, Prince fundamental of the trades union movement, it was easy for the Rupert, B. C., this 4th day of June, A. D. extremists who were in control of Trades Council officialdom to trick trades unions into supporting them, by setting up the misrepresentation that the principle of collective bargaining was 66, Block 12, Section 2; Francis F. Tupper, Wakefield ranch. challenged and at stake. Collective bargaining never was challenged; the only dispute as to that was as to whether employers should bargain with an outside organization not composed of emchallenged and at stake. Collective bargaining never was chalployes and who claimed the right to control all the employes in all shops. Premier Norris, recognizing the point of deadlock, offered to name an arbitration board selected independently by himself. The three ironmasters agreed. The workers refused Notice of Intention to Apply to Lease Land. to arbitrate."

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IS A BIG ATTRACTION

Famous Comedian is as Funny as Ever in "Shoulder Arms;" Six-Reel Feature Also.

Charlie Chaplin is again to be screened at the Westholme this evening. Always a first - class favorite wherever he appears, Charlie is an especial favorite with the young ones. He is always pulling off some new stunt in his own particular fashion and in "Shoulder Arms" is just as funny as ever he was. Valeska Surat is the star in a six-reel feature entitled "The Slave." She is a beautiful actress and is well one of great interest. This ninereel program at the Westholme tonight should prove to be most attractive.
