A Bolshevik University.

The "Radical Idealists" who are still misgoverning a part of Russia are full of zeal for educational reform. At Voronezh the local Soviet has created a "Street University," each of the principal thoroughfares being placarded with portraits and brief items of information, and thus constituting a Faculty of Law, History, Economics, etc. "In this way," observes the Ivestia, the organ of the Bolshevik misrule, "any citizen, instead of spending years at a bourgeois university, can pick up a general knowledge of the principal subjects as he walks along." Dr. Lemuel Gulliver ought to bring an action against the Voronezh Municipality for plagiarism. It is not the first time he has been plagiarized. There was a French educational reformer who caught up Swift's ironical idea, and wished to build a Latin town in which every wall would give a lesson in Ovid's language. He also proposed to bore a hole to the centre of the earth—and Voltaire, who overwhelmed him with ridicule (Diatribes du docteur Akakia) suggested his real reason was that he wanted a hole deep enough to hide his blushing imbecility.—London Morning Post

A Splendid Opportunity.

Production is not only the national need—it is the need of those engaged in industry, first and foremost. To restrict it deliberately now would be suicidal. The time for a new order has arrived and the opportunity. The public will expect it to be seized, and will not forgive failure on either side.—London Times.

Ghosts of the Past.

Berlin newspapers state that 3,000 German sailors lost their lives in the sinking of 198 submarines and that several thousand others lost their reason and were committed to asylums. The ghosts of the Lusitania babies completed the work for the allied marksmen.—New York Herald.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MRS. HARRY MILLER

Entertainment With Novel Features Given in Honor of Newly Wed Couple by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mobley.

A very interesting gathering took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Mobley on Fourth Avenue, when a shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller had been arranged. There were about fifty guests present and on their arrival each one was put on the string, at the other end of which prizes were to be found. Considerable entertainment was afforded the guests in following Mr. and Mrs. Miller in their pursuit of the end of the string they held. They followed it from basement to attic, in and out of the house, upstairs, downstairs, in and out of windows. When on the veranda, a slight tug at the string released a pan of rice suspended from the ceiling, smothering the new bride and groom with the emblems of luck. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were finally rewarded by finding the ends of their string tied to a huge basket filled with parcels, containing some very handsome and appropriate gifts, among which was a substantial cheque from the firm of Stewart & Mobley, Ltd.

After a neat speech of appreciation by the groom the floors were cleared and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing, which was kept up until the early hours. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have taken up their residence in the McMorris Apartments.

Frank Stephens was among those arriving back in the city from the east last night after a brief visit to Usk.

Eastern Prices on Community Silver

We just received a copy of the Robert Simpson Co. catalogue and find that our prices on Community Silver are exactly the same as theirs. We mention this as proof that we are trying to give our customers as good service as they can get anywhere.

Other things we can prove it by are Big Ben clocks, Waltham and other watches, Waltham pens, Rogers silver and almost any well known article.

NATIONALIZATION OF BRITISH COAL MINES

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, June 19.—The Coal Commission, after taking evidence regarding coal mines from practically everyone interested in the coal getting industries, from the miners' union officials to the dukes who own the lands from which the coal is won, has concluded its sittings. It is confidently anticipated that a majority report will recommend the nationalization of the mines in Great Britain.

INSECURITY AND DISORDERS RIFE IN TURKEY

Young Turks Secretly Reorganizing to Retain Progress—In Many Places Allied Victory Unknown.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, June 20.—Admiral Webb at Constantinople reports that insecurity and disorder in the interior of Turkey are rife. The situation at Smyrna where Turks and Greeks are ready to spring at each other's throats at the slightest provocation, is typical of a similar state of affairs throughout the whole Turkish Empire.

Bands of brigands, even within a few miles of Constantinople, are dominating the country and committing the most atrocious murders, robbing peaceable travellers, cutting off their ears and committing similar outrages. Feeling is also running high between the Turks and Armenians, and serious trouble is feared in the near future.

The Committee of Union and Progress, which has been given time to recover itself, is secretly reorganizing with the utmost energy and its propaganda will undoubtedly be assisted by the news of the allied withdrawal from south Russia and the outbreaks in Egypt and India.

Many parts of the interior are still completely ignorant of the Entente victories, as the only argument which would appeal to them, namely, the display of military force, is impossible. It is feared that the situation now, which is extremely precarious, will become acute, despite the co-operation of the Turkish government to maintain order, and it will become even more acute when the decisions at the peace conference are known among the people. The adverse terms for Turkey may result in a massacre on a large scale of those Christian elements both in town and country, who are relying on the protection of the Allies.
