BAD INNING OF EMPRESS COST GAME

Sons of Canada Score Seven Runs In Third-Lambie Back on Mound For Winners

Sons of Canada took a stranglehold on second half honors in the Senior Baseball League when they trounced Empress by a 9-2 score in yesterday afternoon's encounter. If the Canucks can manage to capture tonight's tussle from Elks it will be 'finis' for the 1932 season as far as deciding who will hold the Orme Cup for the next year, as they have already tucked the first half under their welt and this victory would give them second half honors as

Except for the third inning when ten men to score, the game was al good one. With two men out and none on, Doug Stalker dropped Windle's throw on Bury's grounder and then things began to happen. Errors by each member of the infield and a dropped fly by Raabe added to one hit batter and two doubles accounted for seven runs and cinched the game for the Sons.

Bill Lambie was on the slab for the Canucks for the first time since July 1 and turned back 13 batters but four safeties including Gurvich's three-bagger.

Earl Batt did mound duty for the losers and held his opponents to four hits also but poor support lost the game for him.
