DOROTHY DALTON
AT THE WESTHOLME
"The Home-Breaker" is Curious Story With Famous Movie Star in Leading Part.

Jazz music, cubist art and all the strenuous pastimes of modern life, play a conspicuous part in Thomas H. Ince's latest photoplay "The Homebreaker" in which charming Dorothy Dalton will be featured at the Westholme tonight.
It is the story of how a clever young girl, who had learned to know life because of her experiences as a traveling saleswoman, undertakes to cure her erstwhile lover of pleasure madness that has estranged him from her.
To do this, she enlists his aged father in her services, and the old man steps out to the music of youth even though it costs him sore feet and an aching back.
The play is a stunner and should be seen.
