Notice—Military Service Act, 1917 Men Exempted As Farmers

Having in view the importance of leaving a sufficient number of men on those farms which are actually contributing to the national food supply, notice is hereby given as follows:

1. ALL MEMBERS OF CLASS 1 POSSESSING EXEMPTION AS FARMERS, which is expiring, and WHO WISH TO REMAIN EXEMPT, SHOULD communicate with the registrars under the Military Service Act OF THEIR RESPECTIVE DISTRICTS, REQUESTING AN EXTENSION IN TIME OF SUCH EXEMPTION. Questionnaires will thereupon be issued to these men by the registrar and they will receive further exemption upon furnishing satisfactory proof that they are contributing sufficiently to the national food supply.

2. In order to facilitate productive employment during the winter months, MEN EXEMPTED AS FARMERS SHOULD APPLY TO THE REGISTRARS FOR PERMITS TO ENGAGE FOR THE WINTER IN SOME OCCUPATION OF NATIONAL INTEREST, SUCH AS LUMBERING, MUNITION WORK, ETC. Such permits will serve to enable exempted farmers to pursue other useful occupations for the months during which farming operations cannot be carried on.

Many Lines Going Off the Market and Apples Coming in More Plentifully—Cranberries For Thanksgiving.

With the advancing of the season, many lines hitherto common on the market are beginning to disappear. Peaches, cantaloupes and corn are beginning to be scarce, and apples are coming in now in greater variety. The Gravensteins are about over, but Wealthies, Macintosh Reds, Jonathans and Kings are showing.

For the last few days there has been a great scarcity of bell peppers and egg plant. This is explained by the fact that in other years these lines have been mostly imported from the United States. But nowadays these things are debarred from import into Canada, thus throwing the onus for supplying the market upon the Canadian growers, who have not previously grown these lines extensively.

Large shipments of Italian prune plums are expected in tomorrow which, selling at $1.35 per crate, ought to go well. Quinces are coming in and lemons are down a little in price at 50c. Crabapples are offering at $3 per box. This is between seasons for grape fruit, and the first of the new season's crop is expected any day now. Sweet potatoes are still plentiful and the first of the cranberries are expected on tomorrow's steamer.

Among the special lines being shown in the grocers' shops is Overseas butter, specially put up in tins for despatch to Europe, where there is a distinct scarcity. These are selling at 50c. and $1 for 1/2 and 1-lb. tins.
