Settlement of Disagreements.

There is a settlement with Japan and the Italian situation has improved. That looks very well for a proper world peace. In all probability a similar condition will follow in connection with the labor market. There will be trouble for some time but eventually things will find their level and we shall get down to business as a nation.

The whole world seems to be in an upheaval caused by the stir of world war. We shall never get back to the old conditions, but we shall adapt ourselves to new conditions, and shall forget that they ever were otherwise.

J. J. Coughlan, the shipbuilder of Vancouver, in his evidence before the Industrial Relations Committee, said he thought the men were beginning to see things from a saner point of view. Whether or not he is right we have no means of knowing, but it is to be hoped that the relations between employers and employed will improve so that business may become more stable and British Columbia may be given an opportunity to compete with the rest of the world.

Hutterites Are Religious Sect.

The despatches have several times mentioned the Hutterites. They are a German speaking people with strong religious convictions. They consider their religious views more important than the laws of the land.

Their religious convictions prevent them from participating in war or contributing thereto in any way whatsoever, whether by the purchase of war loan bonds, subscriptions to the Red Cross and Patriotic funds, or otherwise.

The Hutterites live in colonies of from 80 to 140 each, or thereabouts. Each colony lives in one large house, taking their meals in one room, holding and cultivating their land in common, etc., and owing to their convictions and methods of living, are never likely to become good Canadian citizens or desirable settlers.

Businessmen's Confidence In G. T. P. Vice-President.

The businessmen of Prince Rupert in their Board of Trade yesterday passed a resolution of confidence in W. P. Hinton, general manager and vice-president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Some flattering things were said of him, and, curiously enough, there is nobody of any importance who has any other story to tell.

Mr. Hinton is popular with his employees as well as with the general public. He has the happy knack of frankness and makes it clear that he knows what he is talking about, that he is master of the situation and that he intends to take no unfair advantage of his position.
