Mrs. Dalby Morkill and Dr. Large Are Booked to Assist Local Organization.

As the culmination of the season and after several months of pleasant but hard work, the Prince Rupert Musical Society will put on their final concert for the season on Thursday next in the Westholme Theatre.

The society, so far from being content with the success of their first production in February, have been going right ahead steadily preparing for this second event with the full intention of surpassing their former effort.

Judging from the enthusiasm displayed at the rehearsals and from the progress made, there will be no doubt as to the artistic success of the society next Thursday.

of distinction, has been secured and Dr. Large will again lend his assistance. Both of these singers are already well known locally and their further appearance will be welcomed.

• Improvement in the orchestral side of the society's activities have been most marked this winter and there are very many more players than at the first concert. The Symphony Orchestra will render several numbers which will lend diversity to the program.

As the musical event of the season, the concert next Thursday night is one which ought not to be missed by anyone who prefers good music.

"BACHELORS CHILDREN" IS ENTHRALLING TALE

Story of Young Prospector Told In Picture at the Empress Theatre Tonight.

"A Bachelor's Children" to be screened at the Empress Theatre this evening, is an enthralling tate of a Westerner's ideals surviving under eastern conditions. A young prospector from the west inherits his uncle's large estate in New York, where he takes up his abode. In the city, however, he still maintains his reputation for "squareness, and his direct western methods prevent what might have otherwise been the shipwreck of his fortunes. OVER three hundred thousand teen-age boys are growing up to replace the wastage of Canada's man-power in the war, and to "carry on" as her future citizens. What work of reconstruction—financial, industrial, or commercial—is so vital to the nation as the reconstruction of Canada's Manhood! Canada lost 60,383 men in the great war, and 156,799 men were wounded. More than ever is it important that the growing boys of this country be efficient, manly and be inspired with true ideals of Canadian Citizenship. Literally is it true that Canada's future depends upon her boys.

> In co-operation with the Churches the Young Men's Christian Association is extending its service to Canadian boys. The Y.M.C.A. is essentially an institution for boys, and a large proportion of its work since its first establishment has been with boys.

What the Y.M.C.A. is Doing for Boys

The story is an interesting one, and in addition there will be a scenic and a Mut and Jeff cartoon as well as one of the best of comedies.

There are four phases to human development—physical, intellectual, spiritual and social. The Y.M.C.A., in close co-operation with churches and Sunday schools systematizes the development of boys in each of these four phases by what is called "The Canadian Standard Efficiency Training." A boy is "charted" and his development is noted periodically. His record helps the Y.M.C.A. to supply the training he needs most to bring him up to the efficiency standard. With his record chart before him the boy is inspired to improve the faculties wherein he is deficient and to make himself a "four-square man."

What Makes, the Four-Square Man

PHYSICAL TRAINING of boys includes camp craft, health education, swimming, running, jumping, throwing, basket ball and other team and group games.

INTELLECTUAL TRAINING includes supplementary school or college work, direction of home reading, educational lectures, practice in public speaking, sex education, craftmanship and woodcraft training.

SPIRITUAL TRAINING supplements and supports the work of churches and other religious bodies; it spreads the ideal of daily prayer and scripture readings among boys; it inspires interest in nature, in music, in things artistic.

SOCIAL TRAINING gives the boy an idea of his duty towards others, inculcates ideals of clean speech, clean sport, clean habits, teaches good citizenship and helps a boy choose his life work to best advantage to himself and to society.

The "Y" in High Schools

The Y.M.C.A. recognizes the great field

Y.M.C.A. wants to reach out to these boys by way of athletic meets week-end camps and social work in the industries, the shops, and factories. Problems such as gambling, industrial relationships, thrift, home relationship, sex education, etc., will thus be dealt with.

"Underprivileged" boys are those whose environment has been poor, boys who have had little opportunity for mental, physical, religious, or social development. The Y.M.C.A. wants to help these boys, by increasing their interests in wholesome sports and games, attracting them to the Y.M.C.A.'s and the Churches, inculcating in them and in the boys born of foreign parents, Canadian ideals of citizenship.

Red Triangle in Rural Life

The Y.M.C.A., in co-operation with the churches and other social organizations, is carrying the Red Triangle to the boys on the farm, the boys in the villages and small towns which lack Y.M.C.A. buildings and equipment. The Y.M.C.A. organizes these Church groups and others to carry on active work to interest, entertain, instruct and develop boys; trains their leaders and stimulates and supervises.

The Y.M.C.A., in co-operation with the churches, will hold conferences and camps this year to train leaders in Boys' Work, and in Canadian Standard Efficiency Training methods. These men will go back to their own communities equipped to "carry on." From 18,000 to 20,000 delegates will attend these conferences throughout the Dominion.

The "Father and Son Movement," by which fathers and their boys are brought together in sympathetic relationship is another branch of useful Y.M.C.A. work.

All Y.M.C.A. work is fundamentally religious, and by reaching the boys the Y.M. C.A. reaches men. Fifty per cent. of the Y.M.C.A. work for boys is done in the churches and the proportion is growing.

Helps Boys to Choose Vocation

The "Find Yourself" campaign of the Y.M.C.A. has helped many a boy to analyse his natural abilities and circumstances so as to make the most of himself and his opportunities. A boy is examined and advised what he is fitted for and what amount of education, time and expense is necessary to attain vocations for which he may be suited. In that way he is helped to make an intelligent choice.
