GIRL ADVENTURES OF CAROLINE ROGERS

"How Could You, Caroline?" deals with the exciting and amusing adventures of Caroline Rogers played by Bessie Love, an ultra-romantic schoolgirl at the caramel and novel stage. Caroline has a soul that soars above the prosaic atmosphere of the fashionable finishing school which she attends. Moved by an alluring novel entitled "Twin Souls," she becomes affected with affluence. The only man in the whole school is a freakish little professor. Caroline chooses him for her soul mate. Her attempts to win him are startling if unsuccessful. Then Caroline returns to her home to be a bridesmaid at her sister Ethel's wedding.

On the way she outwits a frumpy old maid who is chaperoning her. She buys a vampirish evening gown instead of the simple girlish frock chosen by the old maid.

There are many other girlish freaks and escapades before the climax.

PITY THE JANITOR

To the Editor:—
The aldermen had to railroad through a raise for the superintendent of utilities, but the poor little old janitor had hard squeeze to get one hundred dollars a month to keep a family on. That is what I gather from your paper of yesterday. I should like to see every man well paid, sir, but no one should get so much more than another that he is able to have a good time while the other has to almost starve.

How would you like to pay rent and keep a family on one hundred dollars a month? The grocers won't get very fat over that janitor. He will hardly be able to join a club or go away for a holiday this year. I should just like to see one or two of those male aldermen keeping house on the little hundred that they were not willing to pay the janitor.

Hoping you will be able to publish this in the interests of us workmen and that you will give us all the news just as you are doing, I shall end by saying you might sometimes give us a little help in your editorial column seeing that you are a pretty good booster. Boost up the workman sometimes.

WANTS SPEED LAW

To the Editor:—
Would you kindly publish this copy of a letter I sent today to Capt. McCrokie to try and get a speed limit for large vessels in Prince Rupert harbor.

"Dear sir:—Allow me to draw your attention to the inconvenience and damage caused to small boat owners by the wash of the large tugs, fishboats and steamships passing up and down our harbor.

"I understand there is no speed law at all in Prince Rupert for these large vessels, but that you will be only too pleased to recommend the authorities to enforce half speed for a certain distance.

"By all means at your disposal have a law made and enforce it. I am certain that you will win the gratitude and respect of not only the small launch owners, but also the people of this city who amuse themselves in the summer months in canoes and rowboats."

ORIENTAL IMMIGRATION

To the Editor:—
As chairman of Mr. Woodsworth's meeting held last Sunday in the Westholme Theatre, I wish to correct a statement appearing in your paper that he was in favor of the immigration of Orientals to this country. His statement was that he was in favor of the admission of Orientals into our labor unions and that he was opposed to immigrants from any country which would lower the standard of living in this country. Thanking you in anticipation of your publishing this letter.

Yours respectfully,
W. H. MONTGOMERY.

BARNEY JOHNSON NOW COMMANDER

Received Promotion Shortly Before Discharge—Expected in Vancouver This Week.

Commander Barney Johnson, D. S. O., is expected home soon. That is the news conveyed in a letter just received locally. He has received his discharge from the navy and is due in Vancouver about May 24.

Commander Johnson received his promotion from Lieut.-Commander shortly before securing his discharge. This gives him a much higher position and allows him to wear a few extra yards of gold braid.

Before Commander Johnson went overseas he was a Vancouver pilot and previous to that was commander of the G. T. P. S. S. Prince Rupert plying to and from this port. He was in the submarine service overseas.

REV. W. S. A. CRUX LEAVING HERE SOON

Expected to be Stationed at North Vancouver, Leaving Here First Week in June.

Rev. W. S. A. Crux is leaving Prince Rupert and, according to the first draft of the stationing committee of the B. C. conference which has just closed at New Westminster, he will go to North Vancouver.

Mr. Crux has lived in Prince Rupert two years, during which time he has been in charge of the Methodist congregation here. He came during the dull times and had up-hill work, but he has successfully tided the church over the rocks and now leaves the work to his successor who, it is expected, will be T. Herbert Nuttall.

Mr. and Mrs. Crux have made many friends in this city during their residence here and their going away will be regretted. However, they will find a great field of usefulness at North Vancouver. They will leave here the first week in June.
