AGRICULTURE
NAAS VALLEY

The Naas Valley is very little known in other parts of the province owing to the transportation difficulties. That this condition cannot last long is evident. There is bound to be transportation to the Groundhog coal field, and this will likely be by way of the Naas Valley.

There are thousands of acres of fine land on the banks of the Naas and it is in the dry belt as you get a short distance inland. The growth here is immense, for the land is rich and in summer the weather is very warm. The long days of summer are conducive to growth.

For many years the late Rev. J. B. McCullagh, Indian missionary, declared that some day the Naas Valley would be among the most important agricultural districts in British Columbia.

JUNIOR BASEBALL
PLAYERS BANQUET
HELD LAST NIGHT

The Junior League baseball players had a highly successful banquet in the St. Regis upstairs dining room, when the Tiny Tims were hosts to the Dry Docks and the King Edwards, twenty-eight boys being in attendance. The affair opened at 5:30 and the spread was a splendid one, doing credit to Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, proprietors of the cafe. Harry Fletcher sang, and a full orchestra comprising William Balazuo, Charles Balazuo, F. W. Browne and J. Greenfield provided music. W. J. Cash, manager of the league, gave a short and inspiring talk, and at 6:30 the party adjourned to the Westholme, where they saw the first show, dispersing at 9 o'clock. W. J. Cash was in charge and was assisted by Harvey Fraser.

The Man in the Moon
SAYS:-

THANK heaven we are again back to normal. But what is normal?

PLENTY of people have nothing to do but few are able to say they have no one to do.

WHAT a lot of sore necks there must be around after watching that aeroplane two days following.

IF this aeroplane craze becomes a habit here, will all the people develop rubber necks?

THE Daily Ereann is a little bit on its dignity, apparently.

SUPPOSE they get that Irish business settled, what other quarrel will there be to talk about?

THE backers of the Prince Rupert ball team are wondering what happened their money.

ONE of the spectators is said to have asked for his four bits back, saying he had been induced to attend the game under false pretences.

ANOTHER was heard singing as he came down the hill.

IF I'd a little bit and could hit a little ball I'd make Prince Rupert look like nothing at all.

ONE of the masques at the Friday carnival is to be the man in the moon.

TURN G. T. R. BACK
TO STOCKHOLDERS,
SAYS C.P.R. PRESIDENT

Financial reorganization of the Grand Trunk Railway Company and turning the property back to the owners, thus relieving the country of the burden of carrying it, might be the best solution of the tangle resulting from the award of the Grand Trunk arbitration board in declaring the stock to be worthless, according to an opinion expressed by E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who arrived in the city from the East on his annual inspection trip, says the Winnipeg Free Press.

"The award of the Grand Trunk arbitration board does not come as a surprise, though it will, of course, be a disappointment to English stockholders," said President Beatty in an interview with the Free Press at the Royal Alexandra Hotel. "If the opportunity could be taken advantage of to turn back the property to the owners and relieve the country of its onerous obligations in respect of it, it would, I think, be a wise thing to do, even though financial reorganization should become necessary."
