CROOK PLAY TO BE PRESENTED TONIGHT

Drama "Kick In," Comedy "Don't Lie to Your Wife," and Vaudeville.

Willard Mack's famous play, "Kick In," to be presented at the Westholme Theatre tonight by the Athon Stock Co. is acknowledged to be the most wonderful crook play ever written.

It is a thrilling play of the underworld, showing the much-talked-of third degree methods, as used by the police in the larger cities. The play is said to have the biggest surprise finish ever written into a stage story, and it is brim full of tense moments and sensational climaxes.

The Athon Company will also produce the hilarious comedy "Don't Lie to Your Wife," said to contain more laughs to the square inch than anything they have yet played—and that will be going some, as this clever organization has given Prince Rupert about the best line of amusement that has been presented for some time.

Cliff Lancaster will put on his comedy vaudeville act and there will also be seven reels of pictures to help things along.

On next Tuesday night a big fat greased pig will be given away to the holder of the lucky number, with the proviso that who ever wins it must catch the pig on the stage in full view of the audience.

CUTTING TIES IN INTERIOR

Kept Many Men busy Along the C. N. R. during the Past Winter.

PERMISSION IS OBTAINED FOR USE OF HEMLOCK

SMITHERS, May 27.—One of the chief industries of the Bulkley, Nechaco and Skeena River valleys during the past winter has been the getting out of ties for the Canadian National Railways. In all something like 1,250,000 ties have been taken out in addition to telegraph poles and piles.

The chief contractors engaged in the work have been Olaf Hansen of Prince Rupert, D. Jennings and Jack McNeill of Telkwa, Wm. Coop, and the Fort Garry Lumber Co. The largest contract was that of the Prince Rupert man who took out 520,000 ties besides poles and piling. He has had a large organization in charge of the work, including H. G. Olsen, manager; Harry Orme, superintendent east of Smithers, and Fred Cook west of Smithers; R. E. Allen, manager of the Royal Mills.

Hemlock Now Used.
Since the visit a few months ago of W. H. Grant of Toronto, general tie agent for the Canadian National Railways, permission has been given to supply hemlock, the western hemlock having been proved to be even superior to jack pine or any other wood. Practical demonstration of its value was given Mr. Grant when he was here and he is now convinced of its value.

The industry is over for the season but will in all probability commence again in the fall as the railway has to have ties to keep the line in good shape.

Breezy Actor in "Putting One Over" Does Stunts and Fights

"Putting One Over," George Walsh's latest vehicle, is to be shown at the Empress Theatre tonight.

Walsh's bright and breezy impersonation of the motor car salesman who becomes a victim of mistaken identity through the machinations of crooks, is a delight and a joy. His ludicrous attempts to explain his identity and escape from the fate of inheriting millions have taken his audiences by storm.

Thrills aplenty, too, there are in this picture and the mystery element is worked out with true William Fox skill. Walsh performs stunts worth seeing and battles with his accustomed fearlessness and abandon until, as usual, he wins the girl.

PHYSICIAN TO TAKE UP WORK AT MASSETT

Dr. Briggs was Recently Married to Nurse of Local Hospital

Dr. Briggs returned this week from Massett and left for the south on the Prince Rupert last night. He is to return North later with Mrs. Briggs and they will go the Queen Charlotte Island town, where Dr. Briggs will minister to the medical needs of the Graham Island people. Mrs. Briggs is well known in the city and was formerly Miss E. Bunnberry, of the local nursing staff. They were married some months ago.

FISHERIES OFFICE DISCOUNTS RUMOR CURRENT ABOUT TOWN

The local Dominion Fisheries office has received no official word as to the reported capture of a Japanese sealing schooner in northern waters and J. T. G. Williams, inspector, is inclined to discount the wild rumors that have been current on the street for the past twenty-four hours. There may have been some foundation for the report but the stories now out must be greatly amplified. If anything serious had occurred the office would have been notified by wireless from the Matspina it is thought.

HALIBUT FISHERMAN CHARGED MAKING NO ACCOUNT OF MONEYS

N. H. Mork was charged in the police court this morning with misappropriation of $345.79, being money received from the sale of fish of the last catch of the halibut boat Rambler. Instead of liquidating the boat's debts and dividing up with the other members of the crew, the accused is said to have kept the money himself and made no accounting whatsoever. Magistrate McMor-die adjourned the case until tomorrow.

The fire brigade was called to the Inlander Mess last evening, sparks from the chimney becoming a bit active. The blaze was promptly put out.
