

KEEN winds make the skin harsh and rough. Lips get sore; hands crack and chap; faces itch and smart and "break out" into those blotchy eruptions known as winter eczema.

To restore the skin to a clear, healthy flexibility there's nothing like Zam-Buk. Rub it into the face, arms and wrists at night; let work while you sleep.

Zam-Buk's refined herbal essences soak into, and purify the tissues. They soothe irritation and smarting pain; heal raw sore surfaces and prevent "infection" of the broken skin.

Cold-creams, with no medicinal value, or coarse fatty ointments, are powerless to give you the clear healthy skin you desire. You need Zam-Buk the most soothing and successful skin remedy ever discovered.

Also a wonderful healer for Burns, Scalds, Cuts and all Sores. Wounds and injuries. Of chemists, 30c per box or direct from the Co. Dupont St., Toronto. Trial sample 1c stamp.

PERET REFUSES FORM CABINET

Discouraging Difficulties in Government of French Republic

PARIS, Jan. 17.—Raoul Peret, who was asked at the end of the week to form a new ministry in succession to the one which resigned on Wednesday, appeared before President Millerand and declined to form a cabinet. The difficulties are most discouraging and it is likely that M. Briand may be called upon.

PROVISION OF NEW LIQUOR ACT IS NOT TO BE ANNOUNCED

VICTORIA, Jan. 17.—Nothing authoritative will be given out about what the liquor control bill will be like until the draft is submitted to the legislature, Premier Oliver announced today. There have been a good many guesses as to its provisions but none of them are correct because the bill is not yet formulated.

CIVIL SERVANTS TO STILL GET BONUSES

To Increase This Year, However, Owing to General Drop in Wages.

VICTORIA, Jan. 15.—Premier Oliver yesterday denied the story that civic servants are to lose their salary bonuses. It is understood, however, that the civil servants will not get their statutory increase in salary this year because of the cost of living dropping and the wages schedules outside the civil service falling fast.

The Girl Guides Chapter, L.O.D.E., are making great preparations for a children's fancy dress ball to be held on the last Friday of the month in St. Andrew's Hall. It is to be a big event, the children dancing from seven to ten and after that a real ball for adults, with Gray's orchestra providing the music.

The chapter is composed mostly of young people, with Mrs. Robertson as regent. It takes a great interest in, not only the girl guides, but also the hospital and other local institutions. On one occasion they presented the hospital with a gramophone and this Christmas sent that institution a number of beautiful plants. The chapter is also doing its share in helping to raise money for the proposed L.O.D.E. hall which it is expected will be erected in the near future on Fifth Avenue near McBride Street.

The ball this year, it is said, is to be an unusually nifty affair and most of the best people in the city will be there, not only to watch the children during the early evening, but to dance later in the evening.

MUSIC FOR DANCES—Mac's Orchestra, four pieces. For engagements and dates, phone Red 94.

Humor in Male Want Ads.

From Literary Digest "Topics of the Day."

Presumably all ad-lets in the "help wanted—male" columns of newspapers are bona-fide items expressing needs for men workers. When persons advertise for help they usually have a serious purpose prompting their action. But there are some exceptions which prove the rule. Very often little mistakes in wording and punctuation make would-be serious ads quite comical. The following ad-lets will tickle the risibles of readers:

Wanted—Man who can run car and wife.—American Medical Journal.

Wanted—Man to look after garden, milk a cow with a good voice accustomed to sing in the choir.—Connecticut Country.

Wanted—Bartender capable of mixing mince pies.—Dallas News.

Wanted—Fifty bricklayers; highest wages, plenty of parking space for automobiles.—New York Daily News.

Wanted—Minister of the Gospel for lumber camp. Must be a good crap player.—Winnipeg Telegram.

Wanted—At Hotel Randolph, first-class porter; room furnished; also chambermaid.—Provident Journal.

Wanted—Bookkeeper and assistant to club manager.—Meriden Record.
