EXTENSIONS OF PAYMENT TIME TIMBER LIMITS

Matter Vitrally Affects Prince Rupert in Connection With New Pulp Mill.

MINISTER OF LANDS ARRANGING MATTER

VICTORIA, Jan. 17.—Although the Government has as yet made no announcement, timbermen say that an extension of time on the payment of the timber licenses which are in arrears, is almost certain. Hon. T. D. Pattullo says no action will be taken until working amendments are presented to the Legislature.

The extensions will have a material effect on the work of organizing the new pulp mill at Prince Rupert as a number of timber limits are held under option pending the complete organization of the company, and payments on some of these are due to the Government. Until the organization of the company is complete, these payments cannot be made.

The importance of encouraging any new industry in the north is of particular interest to the minister of lands and he has this particular case under advisement and the matter will be brought before the legislature at the earliest convenient moment.

WHISPER FACTORY

New Film Featuring Elaine Hammerstein Shown at the Empress.

The underground whisper-factory, where rumors are spread and reputations damaged, is the subject of Elaine Hammerstein's new starring vehicle, "Whispers," which comes to the Empress beginning tonight.

Miss Hammerstein in this production portrays a girl who is the victim of scandal, every innocent move she makes being interpreted in a sinister manner. Her mercenary aunt makes life unpleasant for her by trying to marry her off to a wealthy but undesirable suitor. Scandal-mongers involve her in a divorce proceeding with which she has had nothing to do, and newspaper reporters are camping on her trail to "run down" the scandal.

Sickened and disgusted, she runs away from the scene of her indignities, and in a different city, under an awning during a rain-storm, she meets—true romance, at last. But all is not plain sailing yet—there's many a moment of misapprehension and suffering before the last few feet of the last reel shows the happiness and sunshine that has come into the life of a suffering soul.

Never Mind The Wording

The only milk now canned in British Columbia is Pacific Milk. No matter how the label on a can may read, the milk inside comes from Ontario or one of the Eastern Provinces. Just now every one is urged to use goods made within the province to give work to the men and women who want it. So bear in mind that Pacific Milk is the only British Columbia product of its kind.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THAT one of the saddest days in a woman's life is when she learns her name is Iva Beard.

THAT bootlegging is wicked if you're caught, fighting is wicked if you're licked, stealing is wicked when you have to face the beak and even spacking is wicked if your wife sees you.

THAT men talk just as much as women and sometimes less.

THAT the stern hard-looking man you see on the street is probably led a dance by a ten year old girl when he gets home.

THAT a fashionable doctor is sometime referred to as a pillar of society.

THAT the garment workers are just panting for money, sew it seams.

THAT it would be rather a shock to get a note reading "Your presents are requested at the wedding of my daughter, Jane Needum to Mr. Bally Hardup at the family residence, Fluffy Street."

THAT there is only one animal that can be skinned more than once and he is a biped.

THAT "A standing account is a queer thing," said Huns. "The longer it stands, the longer it runs."

THAT speed records are often broken, but the man who can drive a car an hour in ten minutes has them all taking his dust.

THAT one swallows may not make a summer declared the booze artist, but it does brighten it up wonderfully.

THAT what will the pessimists do now the order in council is signed for the transfer of the shipyard and drydock to Wallace's?

THAT it is said the new mayor swore something awful today. He was before the judge, taking the oath of office.

THAT there is no hitch in the contract, so there you are. Didn't I tell you so.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL OF J. S. EMERSON

Numerous Floral Tributes Testified to Popularity and Respect

Following an impressive funeral service at the family residence, 1552 Davie Street, the body of J. S. Emerson, prominent lumberman and financier, was conveyed to its last resting place in Ocean View cemetery Wednesday afternoon, says a Vancouver paper. Rev. Harold G. King of St. Paul's Anglican Church officiated.

The principal mourners were Mr. Emerson, a son, John Emerson, Vancouver barrister, and a daughter, Mrs. Ralph White, also of this city. There were also present many oldtimers, those who had known the deceased during his twenty years' residence in British Columbia, and others, again, who had been associated with the late Mr. Emerson in the development of the province's timber resources.

Numerous beautiful floral wreaths testified to the popularity and respect enjoyed by this well-known citizen.

The pall-bearers were Hon. J. W. deB. Farris; James Loggie and E. W. Purdy, of Bellingham; P. D. Roe and Aird Flavell, of Port Moody, and Robert Hamilton, of this city.

In addition to his immediate family here, the deceased is survived by a brother, Dr. John Emerson, residing in Shipley, Yorkshire, England; a sister, Miss Isabelle Emerson, of this city, and a sister, Mrs. E. F. Clarke, of White Rock, B.C.

ELSIE FERGUSON IN "COUNTERFEIT" AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

The film "Counterfeit" presents Elsie Ferguson as a Southern girl of a distinguished family, now in financial straits, who joins the Secret Service to try and win the reward offered for rounding up a band of counterfeiters. The clues lead her to the homes of the rich at Newport and she traces the forgers not to a sordid den in some secluded spot, but to a lavishly furnished yacht lying in the harbor, which is certainly something new in the way of fake money-making establishments. It has everything to recommend it—novelty, safety, and the means of a quick getaway. If any arch-crook does make use of this idea, let us hope some capable sleuth like Miss Ferguson is on the job to foil him.
