GRADUATION EXERCISES

Miss Anna Paynter Presented With Diploma Last Night; Dance in Honor.

Graduation exercises in connection with the granting of a diploma to Miss Anna Paynter were held last night at De Luxe hall and the short formalities were followed by a delightful dance at which the nurses and their friends spent a most enjoyable time.

D. G. Stewart, chairman of the Hospital Board, presented the diploma to Miss Paynter with a few appropriate remarks. This was followed by a short address by Dr. W. T. Keegan, chairman of the Medical Association, on the ideals of the profession. Miss Atkinson, lady superintendent, presented the school pin and conferred the Florence Nightingale pledge.

The refreshments were provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the hospital and were served in the diningroom downstairs. Mrs. Morrissey and Mrs. Pringle were in charge. Arthur's four-piece orchestra provided excellent music and one o'clock, the time set for dispersing, came all too quickly.

ALASKAN LEGISLATURE IS AGAINST EFFORT TO KILL RUPERT'S FISHING BUSINESS

the matter in its true light.

is Amazed.

First, it is amazing that a legislature preponderantly Republican should oppose a protective tariff, the very doctrine that has made the party great, in the opinion of the great majority of members of that party.

Second, it would not deprive the fishermen of the competitive market at all, if the legislators were but informed. Several years ago when congress was expected to place a tariff on fish, even with a Democratic membership, the big buyers at Prince Rupert planned on moving their headquarters to Ketchikan and Juneau, thereby keeping alive exactly the same competition that now exists.

Keep Out Foreign.

Third, every protective tariff is expected to keep out foreign competition. That is the very idea, and to build up the competition at home.

And furthermore, if a fisherman is to catch his fish in Alaska waters, sell them in a foreign market, buy his supplies in a foreign port, and start out again for the American fisheries, what on earth good is he to Alaska anyway. As a Canadian he may be a first class citizen, but he does no good for America or Alaska. True, it may be said that after he sells he comes back to American ports with some of his money, but the portion is small, especially under the present circumstances, with the rate of exchange as it is.

Rupert's Record.

From February 25 to March 25 this year, Prince Rupert received 1,683,000 pounds of halibut, all caught in Alaska waters. Alaska received 690,000 pounds and Puget Sound 703,000 pounds. Thus the Canadian port received more than as much as all the American ports.

Under the tax recently levied by the legislature, the tax on the Prince Rupert landed halibut, had it been landed in an Alaskan port, and a same amount for each month of the year, would have meant a revenue to the Territory of more than $20,000 a year and would have increased the commerce of Alaska near two and one-half million dollars.

Tax Not Protect.

The legislature did not hesitate to place a tax on the fresh fish business. Now, why should it hesitate to protect it? If it is protected, it will mean that Alaska will have more business, better transportation, more homes, more fishermen, greater prosperity and greater happiness.

MACHINISTS' STRIKE

Editor, Daily News:

I was instructed as secretary of the Prince Rupert Lodge, International Association of Machinists, to make a correction in your article of yesterday, May 11, headed "Machinists at Dock Walk Out."

The article states that the machinists gave the company half an hour in which to answer to their demand for 82 1/2¢ per hour for machinists and engine fitters on repair work. This the men say is not correct. Mr. Turney, manager, told the committee to go to talk it over with the men involved and notify their shop foreman, Mr. Littler, within half an hour of the result, and unless machinists would do all work, either new work or repair work, at 78¢ per hour, shop would close down.

After the committee had notified their foreman (that the men still wanted the local rate of 82 1/2¢ for repair work and he in turn had seen the manager again, he returned to shop, stopped machinery and said unless we accepted Mr. Turney's offer we were through and could get our checks at once if needed and if any men wanted to could hire on in the morning.

This, Mr. Editor, is the correction which the men have asked me to publish, which I hope you will be kind enough to put in Thursday's issue.

C. W. POOLE, Rec. Sec'y.
