To Be Dyspeptic
Is to be Miserable

The poor dyspeptic suffers untold agony after every meal, and any one who has dyspepsia knows what joy it would give to eat three square meals a day and not be punished for it after. Nearly everything that enters the weak stomach acts as an irritant, and even the little that is eaten causes such torture and is digested so imperfectly that it does little good.

Before you can eat heartily, and not pick and choose your food, you must put your stomach into such a condition that it will manufacture its own digestive ferments.

For over forty years Burdock Blood Bitters has been tuning up and restoring weak stomachs to a normal healthy condition so that the food no longer causes distress, but is thoroughly digested and assimilated, and enables one to partake of all the wholesome food required without fear of any unpleasant after effects.

Mrs. Alice Beckwith, Fesserton, Ont., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and dyspepsia for several years. I could not eat anything without almost dying from the pain in the pit of my stomach. Seeing Burdock Blood Bitters highly recommended I tried a bottle, and can gladly say it relieved me. I can eat anything now, and am in perfect health."

B. B. B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LOSES HIS CLOTHES
SO WALKS THROUGH STREETS WITHOUT

WINDSOR, Ontario, May 12.—

Wrapped only in a melancholy robe of grief, little Johnny Thompson, aged 10 tender years, appeared upon one of the city's main thoroughfares yesterday afternoon and thoroughly scandalized Frederick Neil, official historian of Essex county, who promptly placed him under arrest.

Neil met the little lad—in a state of nature and tears—stumbling towards his home from the old swimming hole where, he said, between snobs and snuffles, he had fallen among a crowd of mischievous scoundrels, who had deprived him of his raiment.

Down the street Mr. Neil and his "prisoner" headed for the lockup. But a good Samaritan was on hand, doffed his coat and wrapped Johnny therein and Johnny was released from custody.

There is a good deal of land, selling going on at the present time and the influx of settlers from East and West is noticeable. Land clearing and planting is being done in full swing now and the fruit crop this year promises to be a banner one.

C. H. Sawie, editor of the Okanagan Herald, visited this place last week.
