All Gratified Coal Strike Over.

The news which eclipsed all else in importance yesterday was the announcement that the British coal strike had been settled. It was as welcome news here in Prince Rupert, an outpost of the Empire, as it must have been right in England. The terrible strike had become a matter over which people in every section of the Empire were much concerned. Although it cannot be said that people in Western Canada had come to feel the direct results of the three months' industrial calamity, they had none the less become worried about it for its effect had been very serious in Britain and in affecting Britain it affected Canada in a sentimental if not a material way. The settling of the strike was indeed the most important happening in the British Empire yesterday.

Parliamentarians And Salaries.

It seems nothing else if not reasonable that cabinet ministers and members of legislative assemblies should be required to pay the income tax. There is no apparent reason why they should not pay the impost that is demanded of every citizen of the Dominion who receives a salary over a certain figure. Why some persons or the parliamentarians themselves should feel that a cabinet minister or a member of parliament should be free from such taxes seems difficult to understand. After all they are but doing a function in the ordinary course of every day business and are carrying out no higher or more valuable usefulness than many other persons in private life. In many cases, too, the parliamentarian has independent means and his parliamentary work is of his own choosing—it is never foisted on him. Therefore if he draws a salary which in size is subject to income tax let him pay the tax. It is no harder for him to live than it is for the other fellow—at least it should not be. Probably, if it does cost him more to keep up than the man in private life, it is caused by his own personal ambitions and aims rather than by his public duties. He has an expense account for the latter—the former come out of his own pocket.

Local G. W. V. A. Shows Amenability to Law.

The local Great War Veterans' Association may be commended on the attitude it has taken in regard to the selling of beer in contravention of the Liquor Control Act. Its members have been unanimous in their desire to keep within the law and have looked carefully before they leaped. It is true that beer was sold in the local canteen for a couple of days but this was on the understanding that its sale was being sanctioned by the Liquor Control Board. When that was cleared up and it was shown that the Liquor Board had nothing to do with the policing of clubs and it was not for them to say whether or not a club should sell beer, they closed up. They are still closed as far as this is concerned and will likely remain so until beer selling becomes legalized which will not, from present indications, be very soon. The local branch of the Great War Veterans' Association has indeed showed itself more amenable to the law of the land than some of the other branches in the province may have done.

WIRELESS STATION AT BULL HARBOR IS NOW IN COMMISSION

Triangle Island Station Closed and New Plant Opens Simultaneously.

VICTORIA, June 29.—Bull Harbor, Hope Island is now picking up ships at sea and broadcasting the news for the benefit of the shipping interests on this coast.

The wireless station at Triangle Island was closed last week and the new station built by the Dominion Government at Bull Harbor was put into commission. R. Ainslie is the chief operator at Bull Harbor, with a staff of four assistants.

Triangle Island Exposed.

Triangle Island has long been the station which has divided honors with Estevan Point in first picking up and establishing communication with ocean ships crossing the Pacific from the Far East, but its exposed position made it extremely difficult to land stores and when the Government decided to dismantle the lighthouse in the island the change automatically affected the wireless plant. Since the early spring workmen have been engaged in erecting the operating station and aerials at Bull Harbor under the supervision of L. W. Stephenson, Government engineer.

More Efficiency.

The station at Bull Harbor is well protected from the open Pacific, and with a modern plant is expected to prove much more efficient than the old Triangle station.

Bull Harbor, Hope Island, is located about 65 miles from Triangle Island, being 65 miles east of Shushartie Bay and about 10 miles from Alert Bay.

CASEY STRIKES IT RICH WHILE DOING WORK AT ALICE ARM

ALICE ARM, June 29.—A rich strike of native and ruby silver has been made on the Second Thought claims on Clearwater Creek by George Casey, while doing development work. The strike is reported to have been made 1000 feet above the tunnel which was driven two years ago, and in which native and ruby silver was found. The lead has been traced from the tunnel to the new strike. More work will be done on the property this summer, and it is expected that a big body of high grade ore will be shown up. The property is owned by Jack Graham of Alice Arm and George Casey of Prince Rupert.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

June 29, 1911.

The Methodist Church Mission Board has granted a sum of $5,000 free of interest to the Methodist Church of this city to assist towards the building of a new church.

By the mail which came in yesterday, the Mayor received a letter from Mr. D'Arcy Tate on behalf of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company enclosing a cheque for $30,000 in payment of taxes on the company's property for the years 1910 and 11. Before the city can accept this money absolutely it will be necessary for the citizens to approve the agreement and for it to be ratified by the provincial government.

A man giving the name of J. Archibald, who is believed to have travelled under several aliases and who claims he is a blacksmith but who at any rate is blessed with a brilliant imagination, is sought by many people in the city and especially by George White, who advanced him $1400 on the strength of his story that he had obtained a contract from Foley, Welch & Stewart to shoe all their horses and was going to open a big shop here and possibly later on a brass and iron foundry. He has lately disappeared taking with him Mr. White's $1400.
