Land Clearing For the Province.

Mayor Gale of Vancouver consulted with Hon. Gideon Robertson, minister of labor at Ottawa, and telegraphs that the Dominion Government is in favor of a land clearing scheme in this province to relieve the possible unemployment situation during the winter.

If Mayor Gale has induced the government to undertake work of that kind he will have been of great benefit to the whole province. Land clearing is what is needed here. The question of course will next arise is where will the land be cleared? In every part of the province there is land to be cleared, and if one part is favored over another there will be dissatisfaction.

The main thing for us to bear in mind and fight for is that the northern and central portions of the province get their due attention in this as in other things. Last year a small part of the local park was cleared up, the various governments paying part of the cost. It was not all done wisely, for the beauty of the park was to some extent injured, but the idea was all right. There is still more to be cleared, and if not done too drastically, as in the past, would be money well spent.

In the farming districts it is needed more than anywhere. Land should there be cleared in the bulk and returned soldiers given a preference in securing it after it is cleared. The Provincial Government has plenty of land, and if the Dominion Government is willing to pay all or part of the cost, the unemployed will benefit and also the province as a whole. Clearing land has been the great bar to development. Get over that difficulty and the country will settle up rapidly.

Try to Respect Property of Others.

Holiday parties do not always respect the property of others as they should. There is a spirit of destructiveness prevalent among some people in the city. There are children who are not taught to respect the gardens of others, and there are grown people who will steal and destroy flowers taken from other people's gardens. One complaint has come from Digby Island, and others have been heard from time to time. Flowers plucked are seldom very beautiful. When they are growing all may see and admire them. Whether the flowers be in a garden or growing wild, it is a pity to destroy them.

Canada and U. S. Also Japan.

The Manchester Guardian, discussing the Japanese alliance, says: "It may be suspected that the foreign office arrived some time ago at a definite conclusion to preserve the alliance, but was anxious not to offend the exceedingly tender susceptibilities of the United States. But they did not anticipate the stubbornness of the Canadian opposition, which has valid reasons behind it.

"The life of the Canadian and American peoples is intertwined at many points, and their economic and social associations are not diminishing with the passing years. Inharmonious relations between the two neighbors must be fraught with unpleasant consequences for both, and particularly for the weaker state. There are today pressing for settlement a number of complicated problems affecting their mutual relations. The maintenance of the tariff, recently imposed at Washington upon Canada's agricultural products, spells hard times for the Canadian farmer. There is under consideration an ambitious project for connecting the Great Lakes with the Atlantic by a deep waterway accessible to ocean-going steamers. There are difficulties about water power and irrigation rights on streams flowing through both countries, and the Canadian Government is now the owner of thousands of miles of railway in American territory. Under such circumstances Canada cannot be expected to endorse any move in foreign policy which the United States will interpret as directed against themselves. Canadians enjoy an acquaintance with the United States which is denied to the British foreign office, and are aware of the sensitiveness of American opinion on the question of Japanese ambition."

TEN LINES ONLY IN VERSE COMPETITION

Contributors Cannot Win Prize With Anything Longer.

Today there is a contribution to the competition which is an excellent one but on account of its length is not eligible for one of the prizes. Ten lines does not give much scope, but it must be remembered this is not exactly a poem competition. We do not expect poetry. What we want is catchy verse or even doggerel, but not over ten lines in length for any one contribution.

Dear Ed., please bend your shell-
like ear
And hear my gentle shouting.
Friend Omar wrote the first-prize verse
Upon the subject "Outing."

He said to get a book of verse,
A jug of wine and "Thou,"
To also take a loaf of bread
And squat beneath a bough.

And if you did all of these things,
Wrote Omar, who was wise,
You'd surely have one grand old time—
You'd be in Paradise

Now I've got bread, and also books,
I know a lovely bough,
And I can raise a jug of wine
Can you send me a "Thou"?

Into the Deep.

I like a game of tennis
Or golf out on the green
I like to row a boat,
And pull against the stream.

But of all the sports I like
That fills me with delight—
It is to take a header
In the bay on a moonlight night.

Competition Rules.

1. Verse must be original, not more than ten lines in length and having to do with outdoor life or sports.

2. Prizes $5, $3 and $2 for best submitted, catchy verse being preferred rather than poetry.

BAPTISTS ENJOYED ANNUAL PICNIC AT DIGBY ISLAND

The Baptist Church Sunday School held its annual picnic yesterday at Digby Island and about 100 persons, including parents and children, enjoyed the event. Starting at 12:30, the Oh Baby made three trips with the picnickers.

There was a complete list of games and sports with a committee comprising W. W. Wright, D. F. Robinson and Fred Shaw, Jr. in charge. There were three baseball games between the Trail Rangers and all comers, the former players winning two of the games. Besides there was a football game. The races included children's foot races, tug of war and wheelbarrow race, a lot of good prizes being given.

Refreshments.

Refreshments were provided in abundance the committee in charge of this department being Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. B. Newell and Mrs. Paulson. Rev. W. H. Redman, the pastor, was in general charge of the whole affair and popularized himself with all.

The homecoming was as merry as the rest of the day, all singing lustily as they came back to town. By 10 o'clock all were safely home after a day of real enjoyment.

The dead body of George Lichtnaeur, the "crab man," was found at the mouth of McNicholl Creek this morning. A bad bruise over the forehead has led to a theory of foul play and the provincial police are investigating. Tom Collins, of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co., made the discovery.
