GERMANS SEND-OUT PROPAGANDA BOOKLETS

Can Find Money for That Yet Plead Hard Up

GENEVA, Feb. 18.—Germany has begun to flood Switzerland and other neutral countries with very expensive propaganda in book and pamphlet form, such as the memoirs of Ludendorff, Hindenburg, Von See and other naval and military leaders in the war. The books cost between two and 50 Swiss francs each.

These together with the experiences of the former Emperor William and Crown Prince Frederick are sent to Swiss citizens free of all cost without anything to show where they originated. All classes of persons receive them and the Swiss newspapers are asking who is behind this unenvied propaganda. The German Minister at Berne has denied any official knowledge of it.

The Journal Democrat says that while Germany is pleading poverty in order to obtain exemption from reparations payments and provisions of the Treaty of Versailles, and that while she is sending to Switzerland many children for charitable care, she is spending large sums for useless propaganda through which it is hoped to create favorable neutral pressure on the Allied premiers.

Nearly Crazy With Eczema

No rest day or night for those who are afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable itching, oozing and burning relief is badly welcomed.

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; the remedy that has done, or can do more for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture.

Apply it externally and it takes out the itching, itching and burning, and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood; for eczema is a blood disease—and drives it out of the system.

Miss E. M. Bonhiller, 89 Victoria Road, Halifax, N. S., writes: "I have suffered for years from eczema. I could not rest day or night. I suffered great agony, and was nearly crazy with the itching and burning. I used all kinds of salves, but nothing seemed to help me. I saw Burdock Blood Bitters advertised, and was advised to try a bottle. I found great relief, and I really cannot recommend it highly enough for what it has done for me."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over forty years, and during that time has been manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TELLS HORROR SOVIET PRISON

Socialist who Returns from Russia Describes Conditions as He Found Them

BERLIN, Feb. 18.—Prisoners in the jails of Soviet Russia, when condemned to death, are called out to be shot by soldiers who stalk into the cells after midnight, declares M. Schwartz, of San Francisco, the Socialist who went to Moscow to attend a congress of the Third Internationale and was imprisoned there for four months.

In a previous statement, Mr. Schwartz told of the death of his wife as the result of a hunger strike which she began, to end her imprisonment in Moscow, denounced communism in Russia and said he was going back to America to tell the workers there the actual facts about the Russian situation.

Tall and gaunt, his black hair and beard heavily streaked with grey, the American, who had been a Bolshevik before a visit to Russia "saddened and enlightened him," described in a supplemental statement the cold fear and trembling in which the Soviet prisoners wait for the visits in the dead of night.

In Dead of Night
"They always come between the hours of one and two o'clock," he said. "A Bolshevik soldier walks into the crowded cell and in the instant silence calls out the names of the men or women who must die. In the jail where I was, they marched the prisoners down a stairway and into a courtyard. We could hear the volleys of the firing squads. Many men were called out for execution from my cell during these four months. Few of them knew why they had been condemned, but generally it was understood they were 'counter-revolutionaries.' They were shot without trial."

Inured to Horror
After a time the prisoners became inured to these visits and, in the B.H.H. and monotony of prison life, ceased to care whether their names were called or not, Mr. Schwartz said. Gloomy greetings were often passed as the condemned men were marched out. The men about to die would say their goodbyes, wave their cell comrades a so-long, and those remaining would cry out: "Goodbye. See you later."
Throughout the first few nights, however, Mr. Schwartz said he trembled as with ague, and his clothes, even to his overcoat, were wet with perspiration. Other prisoners, some of whom had been in the jail for more than a year, took the matter cynically and told him with apparent relish the horrors through which they had gone.

Life or Death
When at last the summons came to Schwartz to leave the cell he said he was certain he was going to the place of execution. But they led him upstairs instead of down. He was taken before an official named Feldman, in whose hands was the power of life and death over all the prisoners in his charge. This man said he had reviewed Schwartz's case and the American was free to go. Then the Bolshevik said:
"Will you tell me what you think of the Soviet government? Will you go back to the United States and speak against us?"
There was a long pause in which thoughts of the four months in prison and the executioners thronged into the American's mind. Then he replied:
Qualified Answer
"If your government really represents the working men I am for it. All my life I have worked for the laboring classes.
Evasive though it was Schwartz said the reply appeared to satisfy the Soviet official, who affected a pleasanter and dismissed him.
"If every Bolshevik in America could spend a few weeks in a Soviet prison," he concluded, "there would be no more followers of the Red Flag at home."
